DOCTRINAL CORNER

Are prayers wasted on people who are already saved or damned?

They are not wasted. Those in heaven don’t need our prayers, and those in hell are unable to profit by them. Only those undergoing purification prior to entering full union with God in heaven (1 Cor. 3:12-15) can avail themselves of our prayers. If the persons we pray for are not in purgatory the Lord will apply our prayers to others in need of them.

These past forty days we’ve been preparing for this great feast where we will be met with the risen Christ yet how often do we fail to recognize Him in our daily lives? St. Teresa of Calcutta believes that we encounter Jesus through our neighbour as she says “I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus, I must feed him.” This Easter, let us rejoice in Jesus’ resurrection and seek to find and serve Him in our neighbour by being good stewards.

The glorious Feast of the Resurrection of Christ proclaims, forever, that life is greater than death, Jesus commanded us to preach this good news to all peoples in all places at all times.
