DOCTRINAL CORNER

Why can't habitual sinners be forgiven?

"It is clear that penitents living in a habitual state of serious sin and who do not intend to change their situation cannot be validly given absolution." (Pope John Paul II's Misericordia Dei #7c). A penitent is required to have true sorrow for sin and the resolve not to commit that sin again. If a person enters the confessional yet he still intends to commit that sin, he is not truly sorry since there is no real repentance and conversion. For example, if a person confesses adultery but intends as soon as he leaves the confessional to return to that adulterous union, he is not truly sorry for that sin and does not have the firm purpose of amendment to change his life. The same is true for divorced persons who have remarried without a declaration of nullity for the previous marriage or two persons who are in a living-in relationship and those not married in the church. God, in His infinite mercy, desires to forgive sin and reconcile the sinner to Himself, but the sinner himself must intend as best as he can to abandon sin and return to the Lord.

I'm Still Here!

A researched based 'Life' drama on living with Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease. This performance is presented by actors from ACT 2 STUDIO under the auspices of Ryerson University and illuminates the realities of Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease. The words you hear during this performance are mostly from persons who were interviewed.

Living the Gospel with Justice and Love

"ShareLife represents a reliable signpost on the course mapped out by our Pastoral Plan—namely, its core direction of 'Catholic Outreach in Justice and Love.' The work of our agencies, and your generosity towards them, serve as a pathway through which acts of justice and love are realized, and the witness of the Catholic faith is strengthened." — Cardinal Thomas Collins

Today is ShareLife Sunday.
Thank you for your generosity.

"SIGN" OF SPRING 2019

We are pleased to announce we will be replacing our St. Rose of Lima sign on the south lawn (near Lawrence Avenue and in front of statue of St. Rose of Lima) with a new and larger Electronic LED sign allowing for 2-sided messaging with full colour and picture capabilities. This will enable all parishioners to keep up-to-date on Mass times, group events, special observances and items of interest that would normally only appear in weekly Bulletins. Hopefully, this will provide more consistent and immediate messaging benefitting all groups and individual parishioners.

We have been working on this 60th Anniversary project for the past 7-8 months and hope to have it installed over the next 4 to 6 weeks or so.
