They Hummed of Mystery: A
Contemplative Ecology
Monday, November 21, 2022:
9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Manresa Jesuit Spiritual
Renewal Centre, 2325 Liverpool
Rd., Pickering

A day of reflection for men and women. Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si' (2015), uses the wisdom language of the Christian Trinity to attempt a "re-enchantment" of the natural world. The doctrine of the Trinity suggests a provocative language that invites one to engage the profound mystery and depth of creation. The Trinitarian mystery can instill a spirit of awe, wonder, contemplation, reverence and praise before the word and the beauty of God in all creation. We will explore this deep well of meaning and mystery that we call creation or nature. From this well may flow a contemplative ecology that grounds a deep-rooted care for our common home and a call to rebuild, restore, and renew together so that all things may be made new.

Facilitated by: Fr. John McCarthy, SJ. A suggested offering of $50 per person. Includes break, lunch and Mass along with program.

DOCTRINAL CORNER

Does our child have to be baptized in order to attend a Catholic school?

It is important to check with the school board that has jurisdiction where your child will attend school. The trustees of each board interpret the admission requirements in their own way. Some school boards require proof of a parent's Catholic Baptism, especially if the child has not been baptized. This establishes their eligibility to direct their taxes to the Catholic board. This is a government, not a Church stipulation. If the child is not baptized, the parents are usually encouraged to meet with the Pastor of their parish (or his delegate) to discuss this issue.

Baptism is never to be seen as a means to enroll in a Catholic school.

The Horizons of Hope Program will help parishioners, caregivers, and family members facing a terminal illness learn more about palliative care, we will work together to develop a caring community plan for each parish.

- Module 3: Nov 23, 2022 from 8:00 p.m. to 10 p.m.
