LET US WELCOME THE CONGREGATION THAT WILL BE SHARING OUR SPACE

Next Sunday, the Catholic Parish of St Thomas More will have their first Mass in their new home at St Vincent de Paul. Please come to welcome them after their Mass! Tea will be served in the Parish Hall beginning right after their Mass, about 1:30 p.m. Let us get to know them and help them feel at home!

Remember that our own parish Mass moves to 11:00 a.m. beginning next Sunday, September 4th.

FAQ. Q. What is the relationship between the Catholic Parish of St Thomas More and St Vincent de Paul Parish?

A. We are distinct parishes, and indeed under different bishops, but both are Roman Catholic parishes. St Vincent de Paul is a part of the Archdiocese of Toronto. Cardinal Thomas Collins is our Archbishop. St Thomas More belongs to the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St Peter, which is like a diocese, but over a larger area, set up by the Holy See in order to provide spiritual care for Roman Catholics who have an attachment to elements of Anglican heritage. Their bishop, Bishop Steven Lopes, is located in Houston, Texas. His diocese covers the United States and Canada, and has more than forty parishes.

Q. Are we allowed to attend their Mass, and will it fulfil our Sunday obligation? A. Absolutely, yes. You will find some slight differences in the prayers and structure of the Mass, but not as much as at an Eastern rite Mass.

Q. What happens about the collections? A. Ah, you like the really practical questions! St Thomas More takes care of their own collections. They will be paying St Vincent's for the use of our space.

RECEPTION OF COMMUNION - NOT A BLESSING RITE

The practice of coming up for a blessing at Communion time has started in various places within the last decade or two, but it is liturgically not correct. The rite for distributing Communion does not provide for the blessing for those not receiving. Those who are unable to receive or who cannot receive are asked to remain in their pews and make a spiritual Communion. Everyone receives a blessing at the end of Mass. Please do not come to the rail at Communion time to ask for a blessing.
