COLLECTION UPDATE – WEEK OF JANUARY 21, 2018

Collection	$5,887.42
Year to Date Collection	$23,903.37
Budgeted YTD Collection	TBD

1) How do we live our missionary discipleship? The Gospel of last weekend calls us to be disciples, the baptismal call to share actively in the mission and ministry of Jesus as our way into the kingdom. We are thankful that many of our parishioners heed this call, and I hope many others will come forward to be of service in building up the Church (The Body of Christ). Perhaps we can make a resolution to be actively engaged.

2) Exercising our missionary discipleship when it comes to baptism of infants: parishioners recognize that since baptism is the first and most important sacrament in one’s life, it is vitally important for the Christian Community to be present, to give prayerful support to the parents and godparents, while welcoming them to continue to worship with us and celebrate their belonging in the faith community. For this reason, the Ritual of Baptism clearly endorses the practice of baptizing infants within the assembly gathered at Sunday Mass. Rather than seeing it as a problem, we should embrace the chance of welcoming the families and live our discipleship!

3) LITURGY MOMENT – Two different persons to proclaim first and second readings. As Lectors are vehicles through which the Real Presence of Christ in the Word is proclaimed to the assembly, it would be better to have two different readers with varying tones of voices to make it more effective. When only one reader is present at Mass, a second reading can be proclaimed by a commentator or another suitable reader. The General Instruction #109 states: “if there are several readings, it is well to distribute them among a number of readers.” Also, in the pastoral notes for the instruction, the Canadian Bishops state in #161 “different readers should proclaim the different readings, since each reading requires its own kind of preparation and presentation. The change in voice and style brought by separate lectors better maintains the assembly’s attention.” In the same paragraph is stated: “Missalettes or other materials containing the printed text have no place within the celebration. Only people who have trouble hearing or understanding the lector should use missalettes.”

4) We have purchased Celebrate in Song Hymnals for use at worship. The hymnals have great liturgical hymns as well as different Mass settings. It should help us to lift up our voices and hearts in giving praise and thanksgiving to God at worship!

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Our warmest regards to all who worship with us today. Whether you are long-time parishioners or newly arrived to our community, you can register your family information here.
