For the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The prophet Jonah is one of the more interesting biblical characters. Disobedient to God's call to prophecy, miraculously rescued in his flight from prophetic duties, and later frustrated by the successful conversion of the Ninevites, Jonah is truly a prophet like no other in the OT.

In today's reading, this is actually the second time the Lord has requested Jonah to preach repentance to the citizens of Nineveh. Upon the first request, Jonah fled to the city of Tarshish. After much delay, Jonah finally preaches repentance to the Ninevites. Much to the surprise and disappointment of the prophet, all the citizens of Nineveh, "great and small", repented of their sins against God. Jonah's somewhat perplexing reaction to God's show of mercy to the Ninevites stems from two probable factors. First, the Ninevites did not belong to the Chosen People; they were Gentiles. Second, and perhaps more importantly, Nineveh was the capital city of Assyria, the historic enemies of Israel.

The call for repentance from sin was a consistent strand in Israel's prophetic tradition. We see in today's reading from Jonah the divine invitation extended to other nations, including those counted among Israel's enemies. It anticipated one of the basic teachings of Jesus: "Repent and believe in the good news."

What is the difference between a solemnity, a feast and a memorial? (part 3) The difference between the three basic categories resides in their importance, which in turn is reflected in the presence or absence of different liturgical elements.

A memorial is usually of saints, but may also celebrate some aspect of the Lord or of Mary. Examples include the optional memorial of the Holy Name of Jesus or the obligatory memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

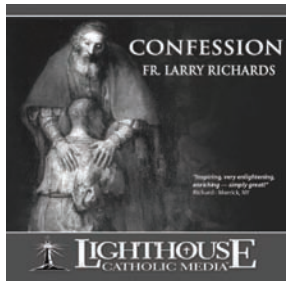

The memorial has at least a proper opening prayer and may or may not have proper readings suitable for the saint being celebrated.

The specific readings should always be used for certain saints, especially those mentioned in the readings themselves, such as Martha, Mary Magdalene and Barnabas.

During Lent and Advent from Dec. 17 to 24 memorials may be celebrated only as commemorations. That is, only the opening prayer of the saint is used and all the rest comes from the day.

Nov. 2, All Souls' Day, is something of a special class that, without being a solemnity, still has precedence over a Sunday.

The same celebration may have a different classification in various geographical areas, as some celebrations and saints are venerated more in one place than in another. For example, St. Benedict, an obligatory memorial in the universal calendar, is a feast in Europe since he is one of its patrons. But he rates a solemnity in the diocese and abbey of Montecassino where he is buried.— Fr. Edward McNamara, professor of liturgy at the Regina Apostolorum University. See prior bulletins for definition of a solemnity and feast.

Confession - Based upon his proven and powerful parish mission presentation, Fr. Larry Richards' talk on Confession has become the #1 talk in North America dealing with one of the Catholic Faith's most misunderstood Sacraments. He is riveting, honest, very human, often touchingly gentle, and yes, even humorous, and provides listeners with hope for a closer, healing relationship with Jesus Christ. Parishioner
