Feast of the Epiphany

It is good for us to enter yet again into the spirit of Epiphany of the Lord and renew our efforts at coming together in the Lord. One way of entering into the heart is to recognize that the story of the magi is the story of each of us.

Like the magi, or kings (named by the ancient tradition: Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar), every person is born with a call that we must answer; a vision to follow and a goal to be achieved. There will be other people, each pursuing their journey, some of whom will prove to be helpful while other may delay our progress, openly or through deceit. Notice the role of Herod. Along with him, however, there will be helpers who support our journey. Just as the magi were guided by the shining light of a star and by the overtures of God, so will our paths be lit and our ways made easier by the gifts of God. We will not be traveling alone. Let us embrace one another and make our way home together to God.

LIVING THE DISCERNING LIFE: Do you sometimes feel that God is so far away and it seems so difficult and pointless to pray? Do you struggle helplessly with the ups and downs of hope, joy and peace, fear, frustration and discouragement? Learn how to navigate through the highs and lows of the spiritual life in Fr. Timothy Gallagher's popular 10 part DVD series made for EWTN called "Living the Discerning Life." Using the ancient teaching of St. Ignatius of Loyola on the Discernment of Spirits, Fr. Gallagher will give you the tools you need. St. Mary's Catholic Church in Kitchener, Saturday mornings in the Lower Hall beginning January 12th at 10:00 am.

Deacon Phil's Corner

Two men died and went to Heaven. St. Peter greeted them, and said "I'm sorry, gentlemen, but your mansions aren't ready yet. Until they are, I can send you back to Earth as whatever you want to be."

"Great!" said the first guy, "I want to be an eagle soaring above beautiful scenery!"

"No problem," replied St. Peter, and POOF! The guy was gone. "And what do you want to be," St. Peter asked the other guy.

"I'd like to be one cool stud!" was the reply.

"Easy," replied St. Peter, and the other guy was gone.

After a few months, their mansions were finished, and St. Peter sent an angel to fetch them back. "You'll find them easily," he says, "One of them is soaring above the Grand Canyon, and the other one is on a snow tire somewhere in Detroit!"
