Welcome to St. Louis Parish - Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Louis Catholic Church. We hope you will find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Louis is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration simplifies the process with regard to sponsoring a sacramental candidate; obtaining pastoral references and for preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours. Registration forms are available at the back of the Church.

Parish Records - Our parish records are very important. We try to keep them up to date. Please advise the office of any changes.

FOR THE 13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The “freedom” of the Kingdom Paul speaks of is not licentiousness or even libertarianism (understood as being able to do or say what you want without interference). In the Bible, being free is less about “freedom from” and more about “freedom for.” Paul continues his argument against false teachers who insist that, for salvation, Gentile converts needed circumcision as well as Christ, Paul rails against that lie. Christ freed us from reliance on the requirements of the old Law. We are saved by faith in Him, not by our works. However, he cautions, we mustn’t use this freedom to indulge the “flesh,” which here does not mean only inappropriate sexual desires but everything in our human nature that draws us away from God – jealousy, anger, selfishness, addiction, quarrelling, dissensions, and so forth.

What we are freed for is love of God and neighbour and we love the “neighbour as yourself.” Here “as” means not “in the same way,” but “at the same time.” True love is never self-centred and never excludes the other. Only when we truly love ourselves with the love God has for us can we also love others with God’s love. If we don’t love ourselves, love of others may simply manifest insecurity or the desire to control and get others to love us. Such pure love is possible only in the Spirit. “Spirit” and “flesh” are not presented here as opposites, flesh being our worldly nature and spirit our higher nature. Spirit is capitalized because it refers to God’s Spirit, who helps us overcome our weaknesses in order to live in the liberating freedom of God.

ST. IRENAEUS – SAINT OF THIS WEEK (FROM CATHOLIC ONLINE):

The writings of St. Irenaeus entitle him to a high place among the fathers of the Church, for they not only laid the foundations of Christian theology but, by exposing and refuting the errors of the gnostics, they delivered the Catholic Faith from the real danger of the doctrines of those heretics.

He was probably born about the year 125, in one of the maritime provinces of Asia Minor where the memory of the apostles was still cherished and where Christians were numerous. He was most influenced by St. Polycarp who had known the apostles or their immediate disciples.

Many priest and missionaries from Asian Minor brought the gospel to the pagan Gauls and founded a local church. To this church of Lyon, Irenaeus came to serve as a priest under its first bishop, St. Pothinus. In the year 177, Irenaeus was sent to Rome and through this escaped the terrible persecution in Lyons. When he returned, it was to occupy the vacant bishopric. By this time, the persecution was over. It was the spread of gnosticism in Gaul, and the ravages it was making among the Christians of his diocese, that inspired him to undertake the task of exposing its errors. He produced a treatise in five books in which he sets forth fully the inner doctrines of the various sects, and afterwards contrasts them with the teaching of the Apostles and the text of the Holy Scripture. His work, written in Greek but quickly translated to Latin, was widely circulated and succeeded in dealing a death-blow to gnosticism, which ceased to offer a serious menace to the Catholic faith.

The date of death of St. Irenaeus is not known, but it is believed to be in the year 202. He was buried in a crypt under the altar of the church of St. John, which was later known by the name of St. Irenaeus. This tomb was destroyed by the Calvinists in 1562, and all trace of his relics seems to have perished.

Contemplative Prayer Sessions – Saints and mystics say ‘Contemplative Prayer’ is key to building relationship with God. St. Teresa of Avila said, “Contemplative prayer in my opinion is nothing else than a close sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with Him who we know loves us.” Join Seminarian Chris Tracey in exploring the meaning, method, people and history behind this divine prayer practice in the last of three One-Hour ‘Tuesday Night’ Sessions in the Parish Hall of Our Lady of Lourdes; 173 Lourdes Street, Waterloo at 7:30 pm on July 12th followed by coffee, tea and cookies. For further info, contact: Chris Tracey 519-886-0342 X 5 or ctracey@hotmail.com.

SUMMER LISTENING IDEAS

WHETHER AT HOME OR IN A CAR

(Lighthouse Media CDs are available at the back of the church for $5 each or 5 CDs for $20)

The History of Salvation by Monsignor Dan Deutsch

- This enlightening talk traces the high adventure of God's Divine Love Story revealed through the seven covenants that span from Eden to Calvary, beginning with Adam and culminating with Jesus. This presentation is the fruit of Monsignor Deutsch's studies during his sabbatical at Franciscan University of Steubenville, where he learned from scholars such as Dr. Scott Hahn and Dr. John Bergsma.

Listeners’ Comments: FANTASTIC!!! This is something we all need to better understand. Don - Cornwall, ON Fascinating! Msgr. Deutsch has a very energetic way of bringing the scriptures to life! Nancy - Warroad, MN

Abraham Revealing the Historical Roots of our Faith by Stephen Ray

Stephen Ray emphasizes that unless we understand the innate “Jewishness” of Christianity and our Old Testament heritage, we will never fully understand our Faith, the Church, or even salvation itself. These are rooted not only in the early Church, but 2000 years before that, in Abraham. With his infectious enthusiasm, Stephen helps us to learn the deep truths of scripture that God taught through Abraham.

Listeners’ Comments: Incredible presentation! Steve Ray has really helped me get interested in the Old Testament and excited about studying Sacred Scripture! - Evan, OK
