Welcome new members - Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Louis Catholic Church. We hope you will find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful. People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Louis is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration simplifies the process with regard to sponsoring a sacramental candidate; obtaining pastoral references and for preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals. Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours. Registration forms are available at the back of the Church.

Parish Records - Our parish records are very important. We try to keep them up to date. Please advise the office of any changes.

Music in the Liturgy - Music plays an integral role in the liturgical life of the parish. Parishioners are invited to join our choirs. Please contact the choir directors:

Sacramental Life - St. Louis Parish celebrates the sacraments for its members who are registered and regularly attending. If you are not registered you are automatically a member of a parish closest to you.

Baptism - Celebrated once a month. Please speak with a priest after Mass on Sunday.

Sacrament of Reconciliation - Saturdays 4 - 4:30 p.m., or by appointment.

Marriage - For registered and supporting members, please contact the parish office at least one year in advance of your date.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

MASS INTENTIONS and EVENTS

In Praise of the Trinity

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

This short prayer of praise known as the Glory Be comes at the end of each decade of the Rosary, but it is not simply a closing prayer. Rather it is meant to express the peak of our contemplation.

Praise of the Holy Trinity is the Christian response to the events of salvation that God has accomplished in His Son.

We praise God for His becoming man and dwelling among us;
for His death, which conquered sin;
for His resurrection, which gives us new life;
for His ascension to the right hand of the Father;
and for sending the Holy Spirit to us at Pentecost .

Attention Ladies: Our next CWL General Meeting will take place on Wednesday, June 7th beginning with Mass at 7pm.

We will continue our annual tradition of having a potluck for our June meeting but this year we are inviting ladies to consider bringing a dish unique to their culture. Do you have a family dish passed down through generations or something unique to your culinary traditions you would like to share? Our potluck will be followed by a brief meeting and we will not have a guest speaker in order to allow for more social time before we break for the Summer. As always, members and non-members are welcome to our General Meetings. Feel free to bring your own cutlery, cup and plate to the large hall for the evening. See you there!

St. Louis CWL & Social Committed together with Waterloo Knights of Columbus invite you to attend a weekend of food and music June 9th & 10th at the Waterloo Knights Hall on Dearborn Place in Waterloo. On Sat., June 10th at 6 PM a BBQ beef dinner will be served. Following dinner the group Derek Hines and the KW Big Band Theory will perform from 8 PM till midnight. Cost: $50 for dinner & music, or $30 just to come and hear this great band. Tickets are limited; must be purchased in advance by calling Martin at 519-884-2060. Come on out and have fun while supporting this great cause for St. Louis!

children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and fourth generation of those who rejected me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments" (Ex 20:5-6).

However, in this story of the restoration of the tablets of the Law, God proclaims His name differently. Here, God says, "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." Immediately Moses bowed his head – the Hebrew word suggests worship or submission – and asks God to be with them. All that remains is for God to deliver the Law, the Israelites' obligation to the covenant.

The First Reading from Exodus 34:4b – 6, 8 – 9.

Our first reading is part of the story about God restoring the tablets of the Law that Moses broke when he came down the mountain and saw the Israelites engaged in worshipping a golden calf. The Book of Exodus describes Moses as having an intimate relationship with God. "The Lord used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend." At one point, Moses asks to see God's glory, and God consents, "I will... proclaim before you the name, 'The Lord.'...But... you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live" (Ex 33:19-20).

This is where today's reading begins. God tells Moses to prepare to return to the top of the mountain with two new stone tablets so that God can remake the tablets of the covenant with the Israelites. God comes down to the mountain to meet Moses and "proclaimed the name, 'The Lord.'" What is the significance of this action? If we look at the description of God's covenant with Moses and the Israelites in Exodus 20, we will find an important clue. There, too, God proclaims His name, that is, identifies Himself, as the one making the covenant. God does so by saying, "for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing

St. Agnes Education Cafe - Sometimes we stubbornly cling to a list of hurts, struggling to forgive. Sadly, relationships suffer & precious life moments pass by when hardness of heart prevails. Yet, we are always called to forgive, and in turn, Christ offers us His mercy & compassion, helping us to overcome anger & bitterness. On Sun. June 4th from 2 – 3:30 PM, Fr. Luke Kopaniak, will speak on “Freedom Through Forgiveness: The Road to Peace”, at the next St. Agnes Education Cafe. For details visit Events section at saintagnescatholicchurch.org

Resurrectionist Vocation Minute - But God’s revelation of this “central mystery of Christian faith and life,” (CCC 234) – of who God is in Himself, of that communion of love that is God – is not some kind of theological riddle or puzzle, but our Divine invitation, our vocation, our call, addressed to each one of us: to enter this mystery of love, so that we will not perish in isolation, but find life eternal through sharing in this communion with God and one another. Fruits of the Holy Spirit

A representation of the Holy Spirit in St. Louis, King of France, in downtown St. Paul shows a dove emanating nine rays representing the nine fruits.

Courtesy Father Michael Van Sloun

In the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation, the person receives the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, fear of the Lord and piety. These gifts are not to sit idle. Rather, they are to be put to good use so they will bear much fruit.

1. Love. Agape love is the highest form of love, love for both God and neighbour. It is selfless, focused on the other person, given freely and gladly without condition or the expectation of repayment, expressed in service, and willing to suffer on another’s behalf.
2. Joy is an interior contentment that comes from being close to God and in right relationship with others. Joy also comes with speaking and upholding the truth, honesty and integrity in relationships, enduring hardships and decent conduct.
3. Peace is the harmony that occurs when justice prevails. It happens when resources are shared equitably, power is used for service, interdependence is fostered, information is shared openly and honestly, the dignity of each person is respected, legitimate differences are tolerated, the disadvantaged receive help, hurts are forgiven and the common good is upheld.
4. Patience is the virtue of suffering interruption or delay with composure and without complaint; to suffer annoyance, insult or mistreatment with self-restraint, refusing to be provoked; and to suffer burdens and difficult tasks with resolve and determination. It is also the willingness to slow down for another’s benefit, to set aside one’s personal plans and concerns, to go at another’s pace, and to take whatever time is necessary to address their need.
5. Kindness is a warm and friendly disposition toward another. A kind person is polite and well mannered, respectful and considerate, pleasant and agreeable, cheerful and upbeat, caring and helpful, positive and complimentary.
6. Generosity is a bigheartedness grounded in an abundance mentality. It is unselfish and expresses itself in sharing. It is extended to family and friends, strangers, and particularly those in need, and is offered not only as money, food and clothing, but also as time shared and assistance provided.
7. Faithfulness is demonstrated by loyalty to friends, duties performed, promises kept, commitments fulfilled, contracts completed, vows observed and being true to one’s word.
8. Gentleness is sensitivity for another person. It is concerned with another’s welfare, safety and security. It is grounded in humility. The approach is careful, tender, considerate, affectionate and mild-mannered, free of all pushiness, roughness or abrasiveness.
9. Self-control is self-mastery regardless of the circumstances, to be in control of one’s self rather than to be controlled by temptations, events or other people, especially when under pressure or in times of crisis. It is to remain calm, cool and collected, reasonable and even-tempered; to be alert and conscious, to proceed with caution and prudence, and to avoid an impulse or kneejerk response; to be a moderating influence; and to have the strength and courage to reject evil and choose good.
