Mission Statement
*St. Louis Parish is a welcoming and caring
 Roman Catholic community.
 We reflect the presence of the Risen Christ among us,
 as we grow together in Faith,
 Hope and Love.*

For the 10th Sunday of Ordinary Time

God's power is made evident firstly in the resurrection of the son of the widow of Zarephath thanks to Elijah's intervention, but even more so in the resurrection of the son of the widow of Nain through Christ's work. Divine power is manifested in a special way in the "spiritual resurrection" of Paul, who from an enemy and persecutor of Christ in Christians, he becomes His Apostle and witness. We learn from all of this that God's power, revealed above all in Jesus Christ, is made present in history for the good of mankind.

God is superabundant and most generous in His love, wisdom and greatness; so too is He in His power. God, in His goodness, shows us His power through the sacraments, particularly Eucharist and Reconciliation. Also through the actual graces He grants us daily. We recognize some of them easily, others we hardly notice, but God's power is made present through them. God manifests His power in us, but so that the step is made from manifestation to fulfillment, our free acceptance and generous response to the divine power is needed. God's power changed the life of Paul on the way to Damascus. Together with Paul, however, there were many other Jews, hostile to Christianity, who equally persecuted Christ, and who were not "touched" by this power. Isn't it the case that people can react in different ways before God's power? Some focus on the invasive character of divine power that collides with our freedom, and so they reject and oppose it. God's power is a nice creation of man, that the only powers that really exist are those of man and nature; therefore, God's power doesn't count in their life because it doesn't exist. There are also those who see in God's power a rival to man's power, thinking that slowly man's power, thanks to the progress in science and technology, will gradually occupy the spaces in which people of yesteryear felt God's power most acutely. The authentic position of a Christian is to accept God's power and presence among us, to cooperate with it in bettering one's life and contributing time and energy such that God's power be accepted by others, changing more and more the mentality of people and human society.

Parenting tip of the month: Parents are the first and foremost teachers of their children. We model for them how and who to be in the world. If you want your children to be respectful, then you must be respectful; if you want them to be happy, then you must be happy; if you want them to have a relationship with God, then you must have a relationship with God. They are watching us and we are powerful influencers of who they become. (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office, 905-528-7988 ext. 2250)
