Welcome new members

We would like to invite you to register. Registration forms can be found in the narthex (lobby). Please call the parish if you would like your home to be blessed.

Parish Records: Our parish records are very important. We try to keep them up to date. Please advise the office of any changes.

Music in the Liturgy

Music plays an integral role in the liturgical life of the parish. Parishioners are invited to join our choirs. Please contact the choir directors:

9:30 Choir - Bob Reinhart (robertreinhart182@msn.com),

11:30 Choir - John Miller (john@johnbmiller.ca),

Peter DeSousa provides music for the 5 p.m. Mass (peterdesousa730@gmail.com)

Sunday programs for children

During the Sunday morning 9:30 am. Mass there is babysitting for children under 3 years of age, Sunday School for 3 to 6 years of age and Children's Liturgy of the Word for children ages 7 and up.

Sacramental Life

Church policy requires that the Sacraments be performed in the parish located closest to you geographically – unless you are registered and regularly attend elsewhere. At St. Louis, the sacraments of initiation are available to registered and regularly attending parishioners only.

Baptism: Celebrated once a month. Please contact the parish office for more information.

Sacrament of Reconciliation: Saturdays 4 - 4:30 p.m., or by appointment.

Low gluten hosts are available upon prior request.

Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least one year in advance of your date. A marriage preparation course is required.

R.C.I.A.: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, preparing adults for baptism and/or to join the community. Please contact the office for further information.

Anointing and Pastoral Care: Our parish community cares about the sick and elderly and the lonely. Please notify the parish office to arrange for Sacrament of Reconciliation, Holy Communion, or Sacrament of the Sick.

Pastoral Care to those in Hospital: Privacy-of-Information laws prohibit the parish from obtaining information about parishioners in the hospital. A family member is asked to contact the parish whenever a parishioner is in hospital and requests a pastoral visit.

Priesthood and Religious Life: Is God calling you to religious life, as a Brother, Deacon or Priest? If so, please contact Fr. Toby Collins, C.R., Vocation Director for the Congregation of the Resurrection, at 226-989-1057 or crvocations@gmail.com.

For the All Souls' Day (2nd Reading):

As today, various cultural influences impacted the Christian thought of Paul's day. From the Greeks, early Christians acquired disdain for the flesh; from Gnostic thinkers they adopted the notion that resurrection was strictly a spiritual phenomenon with no physical dimension and therefore already fully realized in Baptism. Paul's task here is to refute both these notions by asserting that resurrection will in fact include the body as well as the soul and that it will be a future event, not one that is already realized in the baptized Christian.

Paul acknowledges he's speaking of a mystery, but one that's in the hands of God who can accomplish anything. God will change human life and our earthly bodies will remain part of that future existence, but freed of imperfection and all the effects of sin. This will be true of those who have already died and for those who have not yet tasted death at the time of Christ's return.

Paul is clear: this transformation "must" occur and the "perishable" must be transformed into the "imperishable." When this occurs, the words of Hosea (13.14) will be realized and all the redeemed will be able to utter the victorious cry, "Where, O death, is your victory? Where.... Is your sting?" Like a scorpion, death possesses a sting by which it transmits its deadly poison, and that sting is sin. But this sting will be forever removed at Christ's coming, and humanity will be restored to the sinless perfection of Eden. That joyful cry declares the great truth that lies at the heart of Scripture.
