Welcome new members

We would like to invite you to register. Registration forms can be found in the narthex (lobby). Please call the parish if you would like your home to be blessed.

Parish Records: Our parish records are very important. We try to keep them up to date. Please advise the office of any changes.

Music in the Liturgy

Music plays an integral role in the liturgical life of the parish. Parishioners are invited to join our choirs. Please contact the choir directors:

9:30 Choir - Bob Reinhart (robertreinhart182@msn.com),

11:30 Choir - John Miller (john@johnbmiller.ca),

Peter DeSousa provides music for the 5 p.m. Mass (peterdesousa730@gmail.com)

Sunday programs for children

During the Sunday morning 9:30 am. Mass there is babysitting for children under 3 years of age, Sunday School for 3 to 6 years of age and Children's Liturgy of the Word for children ages 7 and up.

Sacramental Life

Church policy requires that the Sacraments be performed in the parish located closest to you geographically – unless you are registered and regularly attend elsewhere. At St. Louis, the sacraments of initiation are available to registered and regularly attending parishioners only.

Baptism: Celebrated once a month. Please contact the parish office for more information.

Sacrament of Reconciliation: Saturdays 4 - 4:30 p.m., or by appointment.

Low gluten hosts are available upon prior request.

Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least one year in advance of your date. A marriage preparation course is required.

R.C.I.A: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, preparing adults for baptism and/or to join the community. Please contact the office for further information.

Anointing and Pastoral Care: Our parish community cares about the sick and elderly and the lonely. Please notify the parish office to arrange for Sacrament of Reconciliation, Holy Communion, or Sacrament of the Sick.

Pastoral Care to those in Hospital: Privacy-of-Information laws prohibit the parish from obtaining information about parishioners in the hospital. A family member is asked to contact the parish whenever a parishioner is in hospital and requests a pastoral visit.

Priesthood and Religious Life: Is God calling you to religious life, as a Brother, Deacon or Priest? If so, please contact Fr. Toby Collins, C.R., Vocation Director for the Congregation of the Resurrection, at 226-989-1057 or crvocations@gmail.com.

For the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The first reading carries a serious and sobering message, especially for anyone who exercises the care of souls. It points to the gravity of undertaking ministry in the name of the Lord. Ezekiel proclaims a message that echoes throughout the Hebrew scriptures: with election comes responsibility. Ezekiel conveys this message with the image of a “watchman” whose task it was to stand on the hilltop watching for approaching danger and give warning when aggressors approached. In like manner, the prophet must recognize and warn of the dangers that lurk in the hearts and actions of the people of Israel. Divine warning must be delivered undiluted, God says, no matter how unpopular they are. Speak what must be spoken and you will live. Those who ignore you are responsible for their own fate.

In the Gospel, clear directions are given for handling correction among the community of believers. Rather than warning of dire consequences, Jesus endorses repeated efforts to win over a recalcitrant sister or brother. The approach is immensely practical as well as inspired: try to work it out and if that fails, get help. When that, too, is unsuccessful, take it to the higher authority. Each step is intended to resolve the problem with the least amount of effort and disruption to the community. But when “even...the Church” is ignored, the believer is categorized with those who are least acceptable within the Jewish community – the “Gentiles” and “tax collector”. For such cases power to bind and loose is conferred on the entire church community. Jesus guarantees God’s answer to our prayers because even where only “two or three” are gathered, Christ is fully present.
