SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

CORPUS CHRISTI

Our readings today point to three aspects of this core mystery of our faith: the Real Presence, the Eucharist as the source of our unity and the Eucharist as nourishment for the soul. The Real Presence is the teaching of the sixth chapter of St. John's Gospel. "The one who feeds on My flesh and drinks My blood has life eternal", says the Lord. One of the first things we learn as Catholics and one of the most comforting, strengthening truths that pervades our whole life from childhood into our senior years is the truth of the Real Presence. When we come to church, we don't have to hope that the Lord will be here. His presence doesn't depend on our mood, our feelings, our holiness or even on our faith. Christ is truly present in the Eucharist by His promise and power. This is what is meant by the "Real Presence". When we come here to church, the Lord is present in the tabernacle and at Mass not symbolically but actually. The distinctive strength, the center and the heart of Catholic spirituality is the truth of the Real Presence. The Lord also gave us the Eucharist to draw us together. That is the teaching of St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. When we receive Holy Communion, we all receive the same Jesus. It is a striking scene on Sunday to see people coming forward at Communion time, a cross-section of humanity, men, women, children, healthy and ill, all coming to receive the same Lord. If we could look into their hearts, we would see that some are very near to God, almost saints. Others are still on the way, while others carry burdens unknown to us. The same Jesus gives Himself to all. In His earthly life, Jesus spoke to many people. He didn't just gather a little nucleus of really faithful souls. He gave Himself to all who followed. The Eucharist is not reserved for the perfect but is given to help us all along the journey of life. It is "esca viatorum" food for the journey, giving us His very grace and life. The feast of Corpus Christi each year is like a homecoming. It's a moment to reaffirm our Catholic faith in the Eucharist.

Everest VBS 2015

Embark upon an icy expedition where your kids learn to overcome obstacles with God's awesome power! Our Parish hall will be transformed to majestic mountains with breathtaking views as experienced sherpas guide children to new summits in trusting God. Each day kids climb the path and learn God has the power to provide (Elijah), comfort (Elijah), heal (Naaman), forgive (the cross), and love us forever (John 14). An exciting adventure for kids from Pre-Kindergarten to Grade 5.
