*"You have made us

~~ St. Augustine of Hippo ~~

PASTOR'S DESK

Jan. 31, 2021 – 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.”- 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word “pray” instead of the word “worry” in the future. Then pray for things instead of worrying about them.

Toward an understanding of the Sacraments: Each of the seven sacraments, instituted by Christ focus on the merciful healing of God. Christ's sacrifice on the cross flows over us in each Sacrament. Baptism for example, cleanses the wounds of Original Sin. In Baptism, the mercy of God flows his pierced side to this newly adopted children.

Countdown to Lent: Removing the Word "One" from the End of the Collect in English prayers. There is a change to the conclusion of the Collect (Opening Prayer) for Mass that takes effect on Ash Wednesday, February 17th 2021 for all who are celebrating in English. The change is to remove the word "one" from the phrase "one God forever and ever. Amen" to just "God forever and ever. Amen." Other prayers that end with "one God forever and ever. Amen" will also be changed to the new formula "God forever and ever. Amen.!"

Diocesan Theme for Pastoral Year 2020-2021: Christ is Everything for Us!

“Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life”. (John 6.68)

A POEM BY KITTY O'MEARA

And the people stayed home.
And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still. And listened more deeply. Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows. And the people began to think differently.

And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal the earth fully, as they had been healed.

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR EACH OTHER DURING THIS DIFFICULT TIME.
