JULY 28, 2019 – SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” (Luke 11:9)

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

What Is Stewardship? It's difficult to teach or practice stewardship, we must gradually learn to embrace every definition or aspect of stewardship.

Scripture Based: All of the teachings of stewardship come directly from the Gospels, the Old Testament and the letters of the New Testament. Stewardship is not a new fad, or environmental word. Stewardship is the way God has expected His people to live since the beginning of time.

Beyond the hour on Sunday ... what happens all week? What outreach are you most involved in? Have you ever wondered how your prayer and active involvement at Sunday Eucharist, spills over into the week? When a parent responds to a child's mental illness, when a friend commits to helping a neighbor get through a period of unemployment, when a businessman takes time every day to speak to the homeless person outside his workplace, when the activist takes up a struggle against injustice and the forces of death, when a relative writes to a cousin in rehab or prison, each has found a way to share the peace that comes from the knowledge that God is near.

Pope Francis speaks ... "world becoming more elitist" In a new video message for World Day of Migrants and Refugees, which the Vatican will celebrate Sept. 29, the pope warned that "today's world is increasingly becoming more elitist and cruel toward the excluded." "Those who pay the price are always the little ones, the poor, the most vulnerable, who are prevented from sitting at the table and are left with the crumbs of the banquet," the pope said in the message released July 2.

St Augustine Feast day! Please mark your calendar for Sunday August 25th; as we celebrate the feast of our patron St. Augustine (Aug 28). Tentative plans for an outdoor mass at 10:30 a.m., in the shade of "tennis court" next door, followed by lunch. More info to follow.
