PASTOR'S DESK

November 13, 2022 – 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us."
2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

LET US PRAY:

1. For the renewal and inspiration of the Holy Spirit in our parish community at this time of post-pandemic reality, when Covid is still active and a challenge for us all and when many parishioners are still not back to active parish life.
2. For the sick, suffering, and lonely within our parish, especially Lillian Bradley, Ron Choy and any other parishioners who are isolated during this pandemic.
3. For families in the parish whose children have RSV, the respiratory virus which is overwhelming our hospitals with sick children.
4. For those who have lost loved ones this past year, especially the families of those whose funerals took place in our parish this year and for the recent funerals on Nov. 5th, of Bernadette Roy and Lorne Watters.

'Seismic' shift hits religious landscape in Canada – The Catholic Register

<https://www.catholicregister.org/item/34924-seismic-shift-hits-religious-landscape-in-canada>

There were 10.9 million self-identified Catholics in Canada in 2021, a sharp drop of two million from 2011, according to the latest census religion numbers.

And at 19.3 million Christians in Canada, that's 53.3 per cent of the population, down from 77.1 per cent 20 years ago and 67.3 per cent a decade ago.

Meanwhile people who claim no attachment to religion — the religious nones — are the fastest growing spiritual collective in the country. The unaffiliated are now more than a third of the country at 12.6 million people. As a percentage of Canadians, the non-religious have gone from 16.5 per cent in 2001 to 23.9 per cent in 2011 to 34.6 per cent in 2021.

The nones are not just adults fed up with their church. Over the last decade the number of children under 10 with no attachment to any religion has grown by nearly 600,000, swelling to over 3.3 million.

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Maxine Kelly, Lillian Bradley and for those who are isolated, suffering from mental illness or who have Covid.

~ the sick, lonely, suffering and isolated in our parish community ~

REFUGE NIGHT

Join us for Refuge Night this coming Thursday evening (Nov. 17th) at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. The focus will be on remembrance. As in previous years, we will remember the members of our parish who passed away this past year and all those whose funerals took place here. The names of the deceased will be read out and family members will be invited to light a candle (which they can take home), in memory of their loved one. Everyone is welcome to join us for this special evening of remembrance, prayer, devotion and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Many Thanks to Our Parishioners
