OCTOBER 20, 2019 – TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...” (2 Timothy 4:2)

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He called us to be faithful.

School Sacramental gatherings will continue, on Saturday Nov. 2nd; at 3:00 p.m., downstairs in the parish hall. This session will be for candidates of (first) Eucharist and will focus on registration, intro and review of the calendar for the year. On Saturday Oct. 5th, candidates for Confirmation gathered to reflect on some teachings about Confirmation, Gifts of Holy Spirit, and expectations for the year leading up to this great Easter Sacrament in May 2020. As I mentioned at this meeting; the basics are non-negotiable family prayer, grace before meals, family rosary, "family that prays together stays together"! Coming to church and partaking of the Children's Liturgy is a wonderful connection with parish life. Any children who are NOT baptized and wish to pursue Sacramental preparation must register and speak to the Pastor.

Book of the Gospels will be a new feature for Sunday Liturgy and feast days! You may have noticed already that we are bringing forth a special book in the procession at mass. This book is called the "Book of the Gospels"; it contains the Gospel of the day! Highlighting the prominence of the Gospel, its message and source and summit in our lives, will be/is common practice for the local and universal Church.

YOU have a right to vote! Tomorrow, Monday Oct. 21st, let's respond to our right as Canadians, "cast your ballot". This time around we have many challenges to ponder as Canadians ... I have much difficulty when a candidate for a party who claims to be Catholic and Pro-Life, says that he or she will be "cast out", "turfed out" of their right to participate; to be a voice in Parliament, yet to be politically correct seems the norm!

TWEETS trending by Fr Frank. Have you checked out "St Augustine Ottawa twitter" Green party candidate gets turfed: "I think they saw I was a Catholic and they assumed I was anti-abortion and this was it. And this I would call religious discrimination." election heating up; however you better watch if you are pro-life? hello! discrimination #staugustineottawa.

Diocesan Theme for Pastoral Year 2018-2019: Christ is Everything for Us!

"Let us work for the good of all, and especially for the family of the faith" (Galatians 6.10b).

Please pray for the sick of our parish:

Cecilia Hastings, Ronald Choy, Susan Choy, Sheila Kelly, Betty Kelly, Marie Vautour, Nana, Joanne Larose, Mary Ruest, Kenny Summers, Frances Grandbois, Sheila O'Grady, Miriam, Brian Gallant, Patricia Beach, Philip Beaudoin and Rose Sampson.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For perseverance in sincere prayer on the part of the faithful, asking the Lord of the Harvest for holy vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life. We pray to the Lord.

SENIOR'S MOVIE NIGHT

Friday, November 1st, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., downstairs in the parish hall. Our feature is "Darkest Hour", starring Gary Oldman, who won the Best Actor Oscar for his stunning portrayal of Winston Churchill in this 2018 film. This drama is focused on the very early and turbulent part of Churchill's wartime tenure as the Prime Minister of Great Britain during the time when the country was deeply divided on what was the right approach to Nazi Germany. Should the already negotiated peace treaty with Germany go forward, or should the country stand firm and face an imminent invasion by German forces? While we all know the outcome of this period, the film provides a stunning portrayal of pressures of genuine leadership during this troubled time in history. Join us for a lovely evening among friends and be served up some scrumptious treats. Movie night is free to attend; however, we gratefully accept donations of non-perishable items for the Debra Dynes Emergency Food Bank. For information, contact Barbara.miles@rogers.com, or 613-224-3412.
