PASTOR'S DESK

October 30, 2022 – 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, ‘Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.’”

LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

Getting to know our patron, St Augustine

Has that ever been on your mind? Have you ever googled or look him up on internet, or better still "read his Confessions?" St. Augustine's Confessions recount the fourth-century bishop's spiritual conversion from his restless youth to finding peace in Christ. At the Oct. 19th, weekly audience, Pope Francis has recommended that everyone can benefit from a similar personal examination of their own life story <https://www.catholicworldreport.com/2022/10/19/pope-francis-be-like-st-augustine-and-examine-the-story-of-your-life/>.

November is a month of Remembrance

Please note that there will be an additional Mass on All Souls Day, Wed., Nov. 2nd, at 7:00 p.m., here in the church. Also, at our next monthly Refuge night of prayer, worship and Adoration, which will be held on Thurs. Nov. 17th, at 7:00 p.m. in the church, the "holy hour" will be dedicated in honour of all our parishioners who passed away this past year and all those whose funerals were held here in the church and in special recognition, all the names of those who died will be read out.

At our last Refuge night of prayer, worship and Adoration (Oct. 20th), which unfortunately was not well attended, we reflected upon the theme of Pro-life issues, particularly the real challenge that our Canadian society is facing with Euthanasia. In our "Holy Hour," we highlighted an article from the Catholic Register (Oct. 6, 2022): Maid contributes to a 'dark day.' The Evangelical Fellowship of Canada \(EFC\) has launched a campaign to stop a federal government plan that would allow Canadians with mental illness as their sole issue to seek death through Medical Aid in Dying \(MAID\).

<https://www.catholicregister.org/item/34837-maid-expansion-takes-us-to-a-dark-place>. Pope Francis has spoken recently on this subject. France begins a national debate on euthanasia, Pope Francis urged politicians from the country's northern region to reject the "throwaway culture" and instead focus on providing care and relief to those nearing the end of their lives. But the heart of the pope's remarks were about the care of the sick and elderly, especially at the very end of their lives. The elderly in nursing homes and those who are dying, he said, must be accompanied and given palliative care.

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Maxine Kelly, those who are suffering from mental illness and those with Covid.

The Church’s Commitment to Our Indigenous Brothers and Sisters

Today, we stand at a crucial time in the life of the Church, and the history of Canada, as the necessity of healing through love has reached a critical moment. While the Church and Indigenous peoples have been on a journey towards mutuality and healing for several years, the recent visit of the Pope suggests a certain urgency for reconciliation, for healing and for justice.

The Archdiocese’s Fundraising Campaign in Support of Reconciliation: “A Christ-Centered, Co-Journey Towards Healing” is a concrete step forward. Please give generously to next week’s special collection (November 5th/6th). Envelopes will be provided in the church pews and on the tables at all church entrances.
