From the Pastor's Desk – Sept. 10th
23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

"If your brother sins against you"

When you are offended, are you willing to put aside your own grievance and injury in order to help your brother's wound? The Lord Jesus wants to set us free from resentment, ill-will, and an unwillingness to forgive. The love of Christ both purifies and sets us free to do good to all - even those who cause us grief. The call to accountability for what we have done and have failed to do is inevitable and we can't escape it, both in this life and at the Day of Judgment when the Lord Jesus will return. But while we have the opportunity today, we must not give up on praying for those who cause us offense. With God's help we must seek to make every effort to win them with the grace and power of God's healing love and wisdom. Do you tolerate broken relationships or do you seek to repair them as God gives you the opportunity to mend and restore what is broken?

Cremation has become the preferred option when it comes to making plans for death and burial. Sunday August 26th, our own Archbishop presented an interesting article within the Ottawa Sun, Prendergast: Cremation can raise concerns about how we are treating the dead. He highlighted the meaning and challenges that we are facing in view of a natural trend that has developed in last 35 years! This weekend there are memorial masses that he is conducting at Notre Dame cemetery and Hope Cemetery for the deceased and family members present. “There is a danger that some practices associated with cremation may diminish respect for the person and hope in the resurrection.” I would encourage you to read the article (google: Ottawa Sun with above title).
