PASTOR'S DESK

September 18, 2022 – 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run “neck and neck” as top priority. Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

Queen Elizabeth's passing is marked by the immense outpouring of prayers and condolences. By the time you read this, the funeral arrangements will be made and there will be another moment when the world will remember a great Queen. May the Good Lord and Shepherd embrace her in heaven along with so many of our loved ones who have gone before us; enjoying the fullness of Redemption and the Face of Christ. “Her Christian faith, expressed so often in her annual Christmas messages and elsewhere, were moments of outstanding witness to her faith, the Gospel and the values of the common good, family life, peace and concord among peoples.”

Parish retreat: Mark your calendars for a parish retreat you don't want to miss! This video presentation by Bishop Robert Barron will be offered in the church on Wednesday, Sept 28th, at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 29th, at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, Oct 1st, at 3:00 p.m. Each session will be an hour long. The theme is: Untold Blessing: Three Paths to Holiness

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Maxine Kelly, Christiane Taylor and those with Covid 19.
