PASTOR'S DESK

September 25, 2022 – 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...” Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

Synodal process is on the 'home/stretch' as indicated by the "national synthesis" report sent to Rome to be included in the deliberations coming to conclusion next year Oct. 2023.

This report is the culmination of a sincere listening exercise that occurred in every diocese across the country. What was most present in the regional reports has been included in the national synthesis, providing a thorough and thoughtful account of the exchanges which took place during the initial phase of the synodal process.

“Catholics in Canada want their Church to be relevant and engaged in our world’s ongoing transformation. They recognize an urgent need for the Church to undergo a profound missionary renewal” said the Most Rev. Raymond Poisson, President of the CCCB, and member of the Canadian National Synthesis Writing Team. Parish Ministry Fair is taking place downstairs in the parish hall after all Masses this weekend. As I mentioned at the end of Mass last week, there is a need for your "gifts and talents". For example, you can see that "I am all alone". There is need for ministries at the altar, especially altar servers. There is also a need for readers at all masses, greeters at the door, etc. Please, prayerfully consider your "Time, Talent and Treasure". Join us downstairs to see where you can become more involved beyond attendance at mass.

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Maxine Kelly, those who are suffering from mental illness and those with Covid.

SCRIPTURE READINGS – SEPT. 25TH
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS – SEPT. 25TH
26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

That the pursuit of righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness will mark the lives of all those discerning our Heavenly Father’s will, especially those considering a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, we pray to the Lord.

St. Augustine Ministry & Committee Fair will be held in the basement hall after each mass on Saturday & Sunday, September 24 & 25.

The Fair brings together representatives from the various committees and ministries that coordinate volunteers within the Parish.

Looking to further join in parish life? Want to share your talents and blessings? Come & see!

More info on posters at each entrance or contact Denis Therrien (613-228-7646 / denis.therrien.actuarial@hotmail.com).

BUILDING THE FUTURE WITH MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

The Church has been celebrating the World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) since 1914. It is always an occasion to express concern for different vulnerable people on the move; to pray for them as they face many challenges; and to increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers.

Every year the WDMR is the last Sunday of September; in 2022 it will be celebrated on September 25th. As the title for his annual message, the Holy Father has chosen “Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees”.

Message of his Holiness, Pope Francis for the 108th world day of migrants and refugees 2022 is available at:
