Fifth Sunday of Easter

*“Just as I have loved you,
you also must love one another.”*

Introduction

Jesus grew up in the countryside, a countryside of hills and valleys, where he often observed flocks of sheep with their shepherds. In John’s Gospel, he describes himself as a “good shepherd” who talks to his sheep and keeps them safe.

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

The first Christians were badly treated, but Paul and Barnabas lifted their spirits. We all go through many hardships, they said, on our way to glory.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21:1-5

There is to be no more suffering in God’s new creation. Heaven will no longer be remote, when God comes to dwell among humankind.

Gospel: John 13:31-35

Jesus helped his disciples to understand true glory. Selfless love was to be their rule of life.
