SSVDP Annual Mother's Day Baby Layette Drive for Birthright

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is sponsoring its annual Birthright Mother's Day Baby Layette Drive for Birthright. Please, select a card(s) with the requested items from the baby mobiles at the entrances to the Church and return the items to the specially marked boxes at the entrances of the Church. We hope to have all the items collected by next Sunday, May 20th so that they can be delivered to Birthright during the following week. Birthright is part of a non-profit international agency whose purpose is to promote life as the positive option. The services they provide are: free pregnancy tests, community referrals, confidential counselling, supportive friendship by trained volunteers, maternity and baby clothing, and items such as formula and diapers. Thank you for helping these special mothers in our community this Mother's Day!
