Holy Hour for Vocations

Sunday, 30th April 2023 is Good Shepherd Sunday, the day when we traditionally honor and remember vocations to the priesthood. There will be a Holy Hour with adoration of the Blessed Sacrament here at St. Anthony of Padua Parish with Archbishop Richard Gagnon presiding. Since we, as a parish are hosting this event, I want to encourage folks to attend this Holy Hour. We need your prayers for vocations to the priesthood.

Holy Week: Thank You

I have to say that, for me, this past Holy Week was the most sacred in my memory. There is no doubt that many parishioners were responsible for the success of events which occurred over Holy Week. As always, there are people who work behind the scene as well as those who played a more prominent role. Without both, the liturgy would not have rolled along as smoothly as it did. A big thank you to everyone who worked so hard and helped so generously during Holy Week. I need to especially acknowledge the choir and Lil our organist for their time in preparing and practicing, plus their dedication in attending the Triduum liturgies. Many people commented on how beautiful the harmony was, even on Good Friday without the support of the organ. To everyone who helped in any way, thank you.

Ordination to the Priesthood

Deacon Oliver will be ordained to the priesthood on Friday, 9th June 2023 at 7:30 pm in St. Mary's Cathedral. All parishioners and others are welcome to attend this happy event.

Oliver's First Mass will take place here at St. Anthony of Padua Parish at 4 pm June 10. A supper will follow in the parish hall. Limited Tickets ($25 per person) are available at each Mass and will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. If you are unable to get a ticket for the supper, there will be a pot luck following the 11am Mass on June 11 where you will be able to greet the newly Ordained.

Sacrament of Confirmation

The Archbishop has given us the date for the Sacrament of Confirmation here at St. Anthony's as Tuesday, 16 May 2023. For those being confirmed or involved in the sacrament, please mark your calendars.

Our next Marriage Prep course will be on April 28/29. Please contact the parish office to register. Weddings are for parishioners who have been registered for a minimum of one year.

Our next Baptism Prep will be on Saturday May 6 at 10am via Zoom. Please contact the parish office to register and get the zoom link.

The Story of Rooster Town: Part of an On-Going Dialogue Between St. Kateri Indigenous Parish and St. Ignatius Parish - May 2, 2023

This dialogue is significant to many as Rooster Town was a Métis settlement that existed from the 1880-1961; at the edge of the city, south of the Assiniboine River and west of Pembina Hwy. In 1961, the city bulldozed the houses of its last residents in order to build Grant Park Shopping Centre. St Ignatius Parish is situated in that region and our school educated some of their children. This event will take place at St. Ignatius Parish on May 2, 2023 from 7:00 - 9:00 pm. Our guest presenter is Dr. Laura Forsythe, Faculty of Education at the U of W, and a Michif descendent of Rooster Town families. To register, contact Carmela Castellano Sinclair at 204-453-9243, or Thomas Novak at 204-287-8583.

The Easter Prayer of Saint Hippolytus

Christ is Risen: The world below lies desolate
 Christ is Risen: The spirits of evil are fallen
 Christ is Risen: The angels of God are rejoicing
 Christ is Risen: The tombs of the dead are empty
 Christ is Risen indeed from the dead,
 the first of the sleepers,
 Glory and power are his forever and ever.

3rd Sunday of Easter

Introduction To Penitential Rite: Today's Gospel tells the familiar story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. The experience of having the deepest mysteries of their faith explained to them by a stranger is capped when they recognize the very Lord they'd been mourning. We, too, must learn to see Christ in the many ways he comes to us today.

Acts 2:14, 22b-28 In the first reading, Peter preaches to the crowds celebrating Pentecost in Jerusalem. He affirms that Jesus of Nazareth is the Lord of life.

1 Peter 1:17-21 In the second reading, Peter recalls that God has ransomed us from sin through his Son. Thus, we are able to honor God through the way we live.

Luke 24:13-35 In the Gospel, the risen Lord appears in the form of a stranger to two disciples. He reveals himself to them in breaking open the Scriptures and in the breaking of the bread.
