First Holy Communion & Confirmation

The dates have been established for First Communion & Confirmation 2019. For those involved, please mark your calendars now. The Sacrament of Confirmation will take place on Thursday, 9 May and First Communion will be on Saturday, 18 May. I plan to attend the priestly ordination of John Schnurr which will take place in Hamilton the weekend prior to Confirmation. This will make confessions for the Confirmation candidates a challenge for all of us, but I am certain that we will be able to manage them if we work together and begin early enough.

Naskamoonan Project, May 2-11, 2019

Are you looking for a Canada-based project in which you can put your talents to use, help others and learn about indigenous culture in a very direct way? Perhaps the Naskamoonan Project is for you. Naskamoonan means "We are grateful" in the Cree language. This expresses the privilege and the opportunity to meet and learn from the Cree community while also sharing our own cultural backgrounds. This project will take a small group of post-secondary women, aged 18-26 up to the Cree community of Moose Factory Island where they will give relevant workshops to young mothers and to their female mentors. There will also be a meeting of the youth with the elders as they join in the local volunteer projects. Enrich your day working with the elders, visiting shut-ins and the sick, doing small projects for those who need the help. This is one of several endeavours offered by Opus Dei. If you are interested, then learn more at: www.fonteneige.ca

Marriage Enrichment

Marriage and the family are very much under attack in our present day secular society. We, the Church want to assist, promote and strengthen the sacrament of Holy Matrimony and build up our Catholic families. In October 2019 there will be a weekend experience for married couples offered by World Wide Marriage Encounter (WWME). In preparation for that weekend our parish would like to offer a 2.5 hour experiential offer to any couples who are interested in enhancing their marriage. I have already approached some couples whom I thought might be interested, however I would like to offer this opportunity for additional couples who may want to strengthen their marriages. I have not set a date for this event as yet, pending on the response from this bulletin announcement. If you are interested in improving your marriage and believe in the sacramental value of marriage between one woman and one man, then please speak to me or phone me. Father Dominic

Leadership For Catechism

For a very long time now we have been asking for someone to step forward and assume leadership of the catechism program in our parish. No one has, thus far responded. There needs to be someone who organizes registration, orders books and to whom the other teachers can consult when they require direction. I hate to make a "threat", but cancelling our catechism classes in the fall of this year is not beyond happening. There has to be someone whom the Holy Spirit is gently nudging to assume this role. God has given you the gift of leadership and the gift of time to be used to build up the body of Christ. Please step forward and assume the role which God is calling you to do.

Building Community – 95th Anniversary Pictorial Directory

It's that time where we will prepare for our 95th Anniversary in 2020. We will start booking appointments for parishioners to have their family photos taken for our Pictorial Directory. These books serve our parishioners in many ways: connects names with faces, lasting keepsake, valuable communications reference for members, builds and strengthens our faith community! Please say "Yes!" when one of our parish volunteers phone you. In just one appointment, you will have your photo taken and you will get to pick which photo you would like published in the book. There is no cost to you or the parish, there is no obligation to purchase photo's, and every family who has a photo taken will be getting a free directory!

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction To Penitential Rite: One of the most basic experiences we have in the presence of God's holiness is to recognize that we are sinners before God. To acknowledge that and to confess it is what God asks us to do. Not to confess it is arrogant on our part because we are basically saying I don't need to confess that I am a sinner. As we prepare to celebrate this Eucharist, let us remember that God is happy to work with us as we are.

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8 In the first reading, a prophet stands in the presence of God. He feels unworthy until he is purified by a servant of the heavenly court.

1 Corinthians 15:1-11 In the second reading Paul tells how he handed on the astounding Good News of Christ's resurrection. He stresses his own faith and his ministry to the grace of God.

Luke 5:1-11 In the Gospel, Jesus calls and commissions his disciples. He vividly demonstrates how they will be fishing for people
