Sharing God's Gifts & Assessment 2017

We more than surpassed our SGG target for 2017, but were short about $6,616.55 on our parish assessment. The good news is that the "over our target" SGG will be returned to the parish. That amount will cover the shortfall in our parish assessment for 2017. I wish to thank all the parishioners who contributed to SGG in 2017. Your willingness to return to God a portion of what God has given to you indicates your reception to the Gospel and your conversion of heart and mind. A generous heart is a happy heart and a happy heart displays itself on one's face. Again, thank you to those who contributed. For those who did not, hopefully this year will be the year when you acknowledge the generosity of God in your life and respond with a sacrificial gift.

Chemin Neuf Weekly Prayer Group -Mondays, 7:00-8:15
With the coming of the Bhaga family (who arrived here from France last July) we have enough of a critical mass to offer a weekly prayer group on Monday evenings! It will begin Feb. 5. No registration necessary. There will be a time of worship, quiet listening, perhaps a short teaching or testimony. Sometimes we will show a Net for God film, one of the monthly films made by our community and distributed around the world in a kind of "net" of prayer. Note: because of some retreats we are offering there will be no prayer group Feb. 19, April 30, and May 21 (Victoria Day).

Song of Songs: Celebration of Merciful Love
A Day of Reflection, Saturday April 7, 2018, 9:00-3:30
The Song of Songs, sometimes called Song of Solomon is a beautiful song celebrating human love. Although it never mentions the name of God, we can discover God revealing His love to each of us. He comes to meet us in our deepest reality and to guide us on the way to our fulfillment.

No Weekday Masses or Adoration this week

I will be away on retreat this week from Monday until Friday, 29 January - 2 February, therefore there will be no weekday Masses. Masses will resume on Saturday, 3 February at 4 pm as usual. Please pray for me while I am on retreat and seeking the Lord. Know that all parishioners of St. Anthony's Parish will be in my prayers

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction To Penitential Rite: As we gather and prepare to hear and receive the word of God, we open our hearts to God's forgiving love.

Deuteronomy 18:15-20 In the first reading, a prophet has good news for the people. They will always have the word of God to show them the way.

1 Corinthians 7:32-35 In the second reading, Paul encourages the people of Corinth not to be anxious. No matter what their state of life, they must not allow anything to disturb their dedication of Christ.

Mark 1:21-28 In the Gospel, Jesus astonishes the people by his teaching authority. He demonstrates his power by expelling an unclean spirit from a possessed man.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

January 28th – 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel St. Mark mentions twice that Jesus taught with 'authority'. This authority did not come because of Jesus' 'position' or 'title'. Jesus' authority came from God. As stewards of our common vocation – discipleship, we too have access to authority from God through the Holy Spirit. All the baptized have access to a charismatic authority. When we humbly place ourselves under the authority of the Holy Spirit, then and only then, are we given any authority; and, the charisma and wisdom to lead others to Christ. This is stewardship of the Good News.
