A Note from Fr. Oliver

With praise and thanksgiving to God, I wish to acknowledge our brothers of the Knights of Columbus for their help, prayers, and support. They were very kind to be present at the ordination and served as ushers. Also, to the CWL for their help, prayers, and support, and many others that I am not aware of, I thank you sincerely.
May the Good Lord bless you in the life to come.
Fr. Oliver

What a Difference a Father Makes (taken in part from an article written by Gerald Korson.)

The family is under attack in today's culture. Not surprisingly, the forces that seek to undermine traditional family values take particular aim at fathers. It's not just the culture's doing, with its easy acceptance of broken families, same-sex "marriage", surrogate motherhood and a woman's legal right to abortion. Certainly, such trends tell fathers that "it doesn't matter if you're there or not." According to Thomas Wurtz, "we've done that to ourselves as men, as many men have become workaholics, addicted to sports, if not pornography, and succumb to other distractions that take them away from spending time with their children. Even when they are home, dads can thereby disengage from their families to the point that they become virtually absent fathers.

When fathers are not present or abdicate their roles, it's a crisis for both the Church and wider society. Fathers are providers, protectors and spiritual leaders in their family. In that role, a father must emulate the very fatherhood of God to his children. That image takes the form of unconditional love. "This is a great and deep longing of every human heart--to be loved, to be known, to be seen, to be chosen." according to Sister Maria Stella of the Sisters of Life. "God places this love in our hearts, and he brings it to life in our earthly fathers. And this is what allows a child to flourish."

God grants men the authority to form their children in faith. When men abdicate that responsibility, it leaves their children fatherless. This robs children of one of the most significant influences in their life. Being a responsible Christian father means getting up in the morning and spending time reading God's word. It means humbly serving one's wife and loving her like Ephesians 5 tells us, "as Christ loves his Church." It means thinking of yourself less often. It's thinking I'm a child of God. I'm called to be a saint and this means Christ-like leadership---spending time at home every day, leading the family in prayer, working hard to provide and taking the family to Mass every Sunday. The future of your children depends on who you are in the home today. If your kids see you going to confession every month and leading them in prayer at home, then they will know a father's godly leadership.

With Oliver now being Father Oliver, I feel confident in leaving the parish in his capable hands while I take a holiday for a few days. Should anyone require spiritual assistance Father Oliver will help you. I will return prior to June 23 as I have a wedding

Note From the Serra Club

The Serra Club of Winnipeg would like to express their Thanksgiving for the Ordination of Fr. Oliver Omega which took place at St. Mary's Cathedral on Friday June 9th. The First Mass of Thanksgiving took place Saturday June 10th at St. Anthony of Padua Parish in West Kildonan with the celebrant Fr. Oliver Omega which was followed by a wonderful reception in the parish hall.

We also invite you to the Ordination of Christopher Pugh to the Transitional Diaconate which is taking place Friday June 30th at St. Augustine of Canterbury Parish, Brandon, MB. The Serra Club would like to thank you for your prayers and support for Fr. Oliver Omega and Christopher Pugh and for all vocations.

A Prayer for Father's Day

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction To Penitential Rite: Sometimes we bask in the security and comfort of our faith and isolate ourselves from those in physical and spiritual need. For this we ask forgiveness.

Exodus 19:1-6 In the first reading, God offers the people the privilege of being a special people. In return they must keep the covenant and listen to God's word.

Romans 5:6-11 In the second reading, Paul marvels at the love of God the Father and Jesus. Jesus died for us even though we were sinners.

Matthew 9:36; 10:8 In the Gospel, Jesus calls twelve special disciples. He commissions them to share in his mission of preaching the gospel and curing the sick.
