From the Pastor's desk:

Reconciliation/Confessions here at St. Anthony's

It's our turn to have Lenten confessions this coming Tuesday evening beginning at 7 pm. So far, at the various parishes which we have visited, the attendance has been very positive. I hope and pray that the same will be true here at St. Anthony's. I encourage everyone who does not avail this wonderful sacrament of spiritual healing on a monthly basis, to attend this coming Tuesday. In particular, I encourage the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion to attend. Many of you have not been to confession since prior to your installation, so I would imagine that it is time to confess your sins once again. Saints attend confession often because they recognize their proclivity toward sin and therefore their need for reconciliation with the Lover of their soul.

Pre Authorized Debit Forms for Donations

Are now available for pick up at the entrance of the church. Once we receive the minimum of 100 forms from those who signed up and those who wish to sign up we will submit them and give notice on when the deductions will begin.

Finance Council/PPC

Our next joint meeting will be on Wednesday March 14 at 7:00pm in the gathering space.

Good Friday Pontifical Collection on March 30, 2018 for the benefit of the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection for the benefit of the Holy Places is scheduled the year on Good Friday March 30, 2018. Our parish, once a year on Good Friday, is called to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the Collection for their lives. As a Pontifical collection requested by Pop Francis, the annual Good Friday Collection helps to maintain not only the Holy Places above all, but also the pastoral, welfare, educational and social works that the Church carries out to the benefit of the Christian brothers and sisters and the local population.

With gratitude,

Fr. Gilles Bourdeau, OFM

Commissary of the Holy Land in Canada

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection March 11th – Fourth Sunday of Lent

"We are what he has made us..." St. Paul tells us in today's second reading. All that we are ever able to accomplish and accumulate in our lifetime is only possible by God's grace.

"All temporal and spiritual goods are created by and come from God. That is true of everything human beings have: spiritual gifts like faith, hope, and love; talents of the body and brain; cherished relationships with family and friends; material goods; the achievements of human genius and skill; the world itself."

1992 USCCB Pastoral Letter – Stewardship A Disciple's Response

So how are we to steward all of these gifts? The first step in being good stewards of God's gifts is to acknowledge that these gifts are not ours, and they are not for our glory. They come from and belong to God, and are for his glory. Then St. Paul gives us some direction, saying we are "Created in Christ Jesus for good works." What are the particular gifts God has entrusted to you? To be shared in a life of good works. "One day, God will require an accounting of the use each person has made of the particular portion of these gifts entrusted to him or her." 1992 USCCB Pastoral Letter – Stewardship A Disciple's Response

4th Sunday in Lent

Introduction To Penitential Rite: We are here because God loved the world enough to send the Son to gather us together. God also sends us to carry the divine love to the world – a task at which we have often failed. And so we seek divine mercy and guidance.

2 Chronicles 36:14-17a, 19-23 In the first reading, the house of David seems to have come to an end. But God's plan of salvation continues to move forward.

Ephesians 2:4-10 In the second reading, Paul overwhelms us with the message of God's mercy. The Father has done everything for us in Christ.

John 3:14-21 In the Gospel, Jesus declares that he must be lifted up on a cross to glorify God and bring salvation to the world.
