From the Pastor's desk

Thank You! to Eliza Refuerzo, Cora Castro and Recel Galvez-Calica for setting up the beautiful thanksgiving display in front of the altar. It is a reminder of how blest we are in more ways than we can count. When we sit back and begin to count our blessings we will be surprised in how many ways the Lord more than meets all of our needs. There are always reasons to give God thanks.

Soup Kitchen Ministry The Sisters of Mother Teresa (Missionaries of Charity) are in need of people who are willing to assist them in their soup kitchen from 9:30-11:30 am. If you can spare some time, even on one morning during the week, the Sisters would be very appreciative. During these hard times, more and more people are seeking assistance with meals. October: pray the rosary & prayer to St. Michael October is traditionally the month when we pray the rosary in a more dedicated fashion. We ask Mary and St. Michael Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who always seeks to separate us from God and from each other. The Book of Job in states that the weapon against the Great Accuser, the devil "who goes around the world seeking to accuse". Only prayer can defeat Satan. We pray that the Holy Mother of God will place the Church beneath her protective mantle to preserve her from the attacks of the devil, the great accuser, and at the same time to make her more aware of the faults, the errors and the abuses committed in the past. The rosary should be concluded with the recitation of the prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel, written by Pope Leo XIII. Many bishops have already encouraged that the St. Michael prayer be prayed after Mass as we already do here at St. Anthony's.

Meditation 3 for Missionary Month

This Sunday's Gospel, in the heart of missionary month, urges us to invite people to the wedding feast. The wedding feast is an image close to us. The wedding dreamed of, and desired by the bride and groom represents their feast day for which they prepare, taking care of every detail so that it will be an unforgettable day to remember for a lifetime. A day of celebration to be shared with the people closest to them. The image of the wedding is presented and often recurring in the Bible. Many events in salvation history happen in this context. The prophet Hosea uses the wedding image to describe the covenant relationship between God and his people, a covenant made by God, eternal and joyful that overcomes the crises and repeated infidelities of the people. Even the sacraments of Christian life are interpreted as the celebration of this marriage between God and man. But the emphasis of today's Gospel passage is on the invitation: "He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast [...] A second time he sent other servants [...] Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whoever you find." Go out to invite to the feast. Being a messenger heralding a joyful invitation is the task of each of us. This being sent, implies carrying an invitation to the feast. Mission basically consists in this, and demands messengers who bring good news that they themselves live and witness. In the face of a needy and often indifferent humanity, which often rejects the invitations made by the Lord, may the Lord raise up messengers of hope and comforters of hearts, for the feast will be held anyway and blessed will be those who attend.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Introduction To Penitential Rite: As we come to celebrate the abundance of God's love in the Eucharistic feast, we reflect on whether there is anything that would prevent us from fully enjoying the love of God.

Isaiah 25:6-10a In the first reading, a prophet describes the changes God's kingdom will bring. There will be peace and plenty.
Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 In the second reading, Paul tells us that he depends on God to strengthen him in all the circumstances of life. God will also help the Philippians in all their spiritual needs.
Matthew 22:1-14 In the Gospel, the parable of the wedding banquet allegorically describes how, even though the marginalized were invited into the grand feast, it takes more than showing up to remain for the banquet.
