From the Pastor's desk:

Couples For Christ & Mass Attendance

It has come to my attention on several occasions that parishioners involved with Couples For Christ are missing weekend Masses in their respective parishes due to some function of CFC. Also some children enrolled in catechism here are being absented from catechism classes due to CFC. This is not acceptable. Being a member of CFC is helpful in one's faith development because it promotes family values and gives good, sound Catholic teaching. However, involvement in CFC should not supersede one's duty and involvement in one's parish. Members of CFC are to make attendance at weekend Eucharist in their own parish a priority. Those enrolled in catechism are not excused because their parents are involved in CFC. There is always order in the household of God. The evil one is all about confusion. Those children who are enrolled in catechism for the sacramental years like First Holy Communion will be welcome to participate in classes the following year should they miss classes this year due to CFC involvement.

St. Nicholas Tavelich celebrates 50th Anniversary

Our neighbouring parish of St. Nicholas will be celebrating 50 years since they formed a parish on August 30, 1968. The celebration will take place on the weekend of November 23-25, 2018. On Friday, Nov. 23 there will be a formal concert Nonet Donum at 6:30 pm followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:30 pm at St. Nicholas Parish. The gala dinner will take place at Immaculate Conception Hall on Saturday, 24 November 2018 beginning at 5:30 pm. Tickets to the dinner may be purchased by phoning Barbara Pivaric at 204-339-3264. Holy Mass will be offered by Bishop of Dubrovnik mons. Mate Uzinic on Sunday, 25 Nov. at 11 am.

Mass for the Deceased of St. Anthony's Parish

There will be a Memorial Mass for all those parishioners who have died thus far this year. The Mass will be at 7pm on All Saints, Nov. 1, which is also the Vigil of All Souls. The following parishioners will be remembered: : Libby O'Driscoll, Nelson Poets, Josie Desorcy, Anthony Hayek, Edward Ploszay Sr., Gabrijela Anderlic, Ed Gardewine, Katca Hren, Emilio Espiritu, Tillie Heather, Norman Camungol, Dave Negrych, Eddie Ottenbreit, John Alcludia, Rita Hay, Anne Sweeny and Bob Arnal.

Pro-Life Presentation

The Church, right from the earliest Christians, has always recognized and protected the sanctity of human life as being made in God's image. In today's culture human life is constantly devalued, especially by the widespread acceptance of abortion. Kyle Coffey from the Canadian Centre for Bio-Ethical Reform is working with St. Anthony's to host an educational seminar where you can learn how to be a voice for the pre-born, the most vulnerable of God's children. Learn how to talk about abortion with compassion, with confidence, and to be persuasive to your friends, family, and co-workers so that you can save children from the pain of abortion. Learn how to be Christ's light to an ever darkening world. This workshop is on Tuesday October 30th from 7:45pm-9:45pm, here at St. Anthony's. Please consider taking the time to learn how to stand up for the most orphaned among us, preborn children.

Evolution Talk

Hugh Owen from the Kolbe Center for the Study of Creation will give a talk here at St. Anthony's on Saturday, November 3, 2018 following the 4 pm Mass in the hall. Everyone is invited to attend. You can google Hugh Owen on the internet in order to learn more about him and his work. He will also be presenting at the Canadian Mennonite University on Saturday morning and in Killarney on Sunday, November 4.

Parish Census

In order to upgrade our parish records, we will conduct a parish census on the weekend of November 10 and 11. Following the homily, census forms will be distributed and after they are completed they can be dropped in the collection basket with your donation. For those on our list who are not at mass that weekend, a form will be mailed to you. It is important for us to have your correct information for your donation receipt at the end of the year.

World Mission Sunday

Thank you very much for your generous contribution to last week's World Mission Sunday collection. This support is a blessing for the Bishops, the Priests, the Sisters, the Brothers and the lay catechists who depend on this help from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please continue to pray for those who serve in mission countries so that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ's message of love to those they serve.

Pontifical Association of Holy Childhood

This year the Pontifical Association of the Holy Childhood is celebrating its 175th Anniversary. Children helping children; that is children in Canada helping children in third world countries through their prayers, through education and through financial assistance. One young girl asked all of the children who were invited to her birthday party to not bring her any gifts. Instead she asked them to bring some monetary assistance for the children in a small village in Namibia. Thank you to the children in our parish of St. Anthony's for their ongoing support of the Holy Childhood Association. God will bless you.

Bible study: Our next bible study will take place from January 7, 2019 to March 11. Monday evenings beginning at 6:30pm. This study will be "The Gospel of Luke Pt 1 and Pt 2". The Gospel of Luke demonstrates the universal nature of Jesus' mission and the compassion of God. Part One of this study includes Luke 1:1—11:54, taking the reader from the infancy narratives of John the Baptist and Jesus to their births and then to the Galilean ministry of Jesus. In Part Two of this study (Luke 12:1—24:53), readers travel with Jesus from the region of Galilee to the city of Jerusalem, where Jesus will enter into his passion and resurrection. Luke's focus on God's faithfulness will encourage you to trust. If you are interested, please call the parish office to sign up. Cost to be determined once material is ordered.

Winnipeg Harvest

Once again we will be volunteering at the Winnipeg Harvest. Our first date will be November 24th 9:30a.m -12:00p.m . Anyone interested can sign up on the sheet provided in the back of the church.

Once again St. Nicholas Tavelich Parish is organizing

"Holyween" as a substitute for the usual pagan Halloween. Our celebration will take place at St. Nicholas Tavelich Parish hall on Wednesday, October 31st from 6:00 - 8:30 pm. There will be food, games, a short film about saints, and of course plenty of candy! We ask that no scary costumes are worn (children can even dress as their favourite saint). A prize for best costume will be awarded! Please join in the fun while staying warm and dry. Anyone interested in attending is asked to call either Robin Kvaternik 204-297-9270, or Marica Rampone 204-471-1670.

Your Last Will and Testament

Please remember your parish in your last will and testament, keeping in mind that we receive our finances from those who fill the pews, not from government or social institutions. God loves a cheerful giver!

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction: Today we come together to share a meal – a Eucharistic meal, under the steady gaze of the crucified and risen Jesus. We started this meal with the same words used by Bartimaeus as he called out to Jesus for healing: "Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy." We pray that, like Bartimaeus, we will be healed of our blindness, eager to joyfully follow Jesus to Jerusalem, and to recognize his face in the poor and suffering of the world.

Jeremiah 31:7-9 In the first reading, a prophet has good news for the people. God will bring them home from exile.

Hebrews 5:1-6 In the second reading, we hear that Jesus is our high priest. As God's Son, he had a special call. He is a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Mark 10:46-52 In the Gospel, blind Bartimaeus receives his sight from Jesus. He becomes a disciple and follows Jesus on the way.
