July 7th — 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
7 luglio - 14a domenica del Tempo Ordinario

Where to begin? My name is Fr. Timothy Scott and I am your new pastor. It is truly to honour to be named to this ministry here in service of the Windsor Heritage Catholic Family of Parishes. The Basilian Fathers began serving in this diocese over 150 years ago. As I continue in this Basilian ministry of service, I can only ask for both your patience and your prayers at the beginning of my mandate.

This Sunday's readings can only make a new pastor smile. In the first reading from Ezekiel, God informs the prophet that the people are impudent, stubborn and unlikely to respond his call. In the Gospel, Jesus returns to his hometown and is rejected by the townspeople. The fact that they knew his family and had seen him growing up was sufficient to allow them to ignore his preaching. "A prophet is not without honour, except in his hometown" the Gospel tells us.

To a greater or lesser extent, we all suffer from hardness of heart, and we all require the grace of the Holy Spirit to hear and respond to his call to conversation. St. Paul recounts how the Lord spoke to him saying "My grace is enough for you". There is a message in those words for each of us. In the many and varied circumstances to find ourselves, let us pray for hearts capable of listening and a willingness to serve.

-Father Timothy Scott, CSB

FAMILY PRAYER REFLECTION: Some thoughts from Laudato Si - Care for our common home. School is out and the everyday pace of family life changes these opening weeks of summer. The out doors calls young and old alike to spend time in Nature. Talk about how God is present in the flowers (what do you think God was thinking when he created colour?), grass (search for all the creatures moving in the grass), sun (how important is the sun?) and sky (pull out a blanket, lay in the sun and talk about what Heaven might look like) and how even the Bible speaks of this. "God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good." (Genesis: 1:31) Pope Francis reminds us "We come together to take charge of this home he has entrusted to us." Pope Francis Laudato Si 244

Have a happy week!

PRAYING WITH THE SUNDAY GOSPEL RESOURCE FOR INDIVIDUALS & FAMILIES

Lectio Divina, "divine reading", is a traditional method of scriptural prayer that leads to communion with God. The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops has developed a resource to help you pray with the weekly Sunday Gospel. The resource includes everything you need to pray alone or with family or friends. This is a wonderful way to enter into Ordinary Time of the Church Year and deepen your relationship with Jesus.
