HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

From the Administrator's Desk...

Why did Jesus teach in parables? This question is probably one of the most common questions asked about the Gospels, especially when we read passages such as the one that the Church gives us for this weekend's Gospel. To begin to answer that question, think for a moment about teachers you have had in your life. What made their lessons memorable? What helped you to better understand concepts and lessons in a more concrete way? Did the teacher use real-world examples to help you grasp the material more fully?

Jesus, the master teacher, is no different. He knows that by using themes and images that the people could more easily understand, he can more effectively get his point across. This is because these images cause us to stop and think for a moment. They cause us to really reflect on the words that have been said, and ponder how their meaning can be applied to our understanding of the Gospel, and of the message that Jesus seeks to convey.

The parables that Jesus uses in today's Gospel are a prime example of this method of teaching, as they speak to us about the work of building up the Kingdom of God. The parable of the farmer who sows seed is meant to remind us that the Kingdom of God is always growing in our midst, even if we can't see that growth taking place. We are reminded to trust in God's work, and to have faith that the fullness of that growth will happen in time. The second parable employs a bit of hyperbole, but the message is still clear: God's Kingdom can grow from simple and humble beginnings to permeate the entire world.

As we consider these parables, it is important to remember that God's timing is often different from our own. Our faith tells us that God is at work in the world, and that the faithful who do the will of God by responding to the guidance of the Holy Spirit are helping to bring about the Kingdom of God on earth. And yet, we often wonder why God is taking so long, and why it often seems like nothing is happening. It is in those moments of questioning that Fr. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, the Jesuit Priest and Mystic, invites us to "Trust in the Slow Work of God." We can take comfort in knowing that progress takes time, and that in time, we will see the fruits of how God has been at work in our lives. May God help us all to deepen our trust in him, and to trust in his plan and his timing for our lives.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

A Path to Solidarity

The Diocese of London Truth and Reconciliation Committee invites you to engage in A Path to Solidarity; to learn, pray and take action for truth and reconciliation.

Each month, for ten months, a current topic will be explored as "A Step on A Path to Solidarity" to raise awareness, educate and stimulate discussion.

The goal is to increase non-Indigenous knowledge of present problems that Indigenous people are experiencing, solutions that are being worked on, and to encourage creative discernment on further solutions.

FISHING FOR INPUT! We are entering the time of graduations and end of school - but - look forward to the promise of down time, a safe and restful summer and new beginnings in the Fall. I am looking for input for a future event. That being a "Family/Teen Alpha" perhaps to be run in January of 2025. In my time here at the Windsor Heritage Catholic Family of Parishes I have noticed a "hunger" on the part of the families and their teens to know more about Jesus. I am collecting thoughts on this, or any other faith event that may work. I trust in the Holy Spirit to guide us all! Leave comments at 519 253 2493 x227 or by email ltibor@dol.ca

"ILLUMINATE" - STEUBENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL CONFERENCE JULY 19-21 Where: Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. Bus pick-ups will be arranged at various locations. Who: High School Students (Incoming gr. 9s through gr. 12 grads) Cost: $450 includes coach bus, conference fee & meals at the conference. I have been invited to accompany young people attending this Conference. Having attended previously, I can attest to the importance of connecting young people with their own peer group in this faith experience. Interested? Contact Lynne Tibor.

FAMILY REFLECTION - FATHER'S DAY: This weekend we pause and give thanks for all of the men who are "Fathers" and "Father figures" in our lives. Remembering also all the "Spiritual Fathers", the Priests, who bring the heart of God the Father to everyone. In prayer: "Dear God, Thank you for loving us with your perfect heart of a father. We ask you this Father's Day and always to guide and protect the hearts of all men in fatherly roles who are striving to love with your heart and do your work. Give them pure, chaste, courageous, and creative hearts like Saint Joseph". "Amen".

Have a great week, Lynne Tibor CPM CYM

PRAYING WITH THE SUNDAY GOSPEL RESOURCE FOR INDIVIDUALS & FAMILIES

Lectio Divina, "divine reading", is a traditional method of scriptural prayer that leads to communion with God. The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops has developed a resource to help you pray with the weekly Sunday Gospel. The resource includes everything you need to pray alone or with family or friends. This is a wonderful way to live in this Ordinary Time of the Church Year and to deepen your relationship with Jesus.

Outreach News

St. Alphonsus Cares

Our last community meal before the summer break will be Friday, June 28th. If the weather cooperates it will take place outdoors.

We are looking for donations of small individual bags of chips. If you would like to donate, please leave them for Sr. Connie at St. Alphonsus or email her and she will pick them up.

Assumption Cares

We are looking for donations of inexpensive prizes for adults for our upcoming bingo days.

We are in need of volunteers to lead our Knit and Crochet group two mornings per month and for our monthly cooking class. Please contact Laura at Assumptioncares@dol.ca or call 226-260-1768

Farewell to Father Steven: As was announced earlier in May, the Basilian Fathers have asked Father Steven to take an appointment to serve at St. Anne's Parish in Houston, Texas, effective July 1st. A farewell tour is underway at our Family of Parishes, and following each mass there will be a time for deserts, drinks and fellowship as we wish Father Steven all the best and thank him for this time with us.
