From the Administrator's Desk...

Our Gospel reading for this weekend continues to draw our focus to the theme of the unity of all believers. We hear Jesus remind us that if a kingdom is divided against itself, it cannot stand. He also tells us that anyone who does the will of God is his sister, brother, and mother. These words of Jesus speak volumes about how we are to live out our lives. They remind us that we are called to work to build up the unity of the Body of Christ: something that we pray for in the Eucharistic Prayer at every Mass.

It can be a challenge for us to understand this emphasis on unity, especially since we live in a day and age where individualism is prized and celebrated. We are told by contemporary society that we don't need anyone else: we should always try to make it on our own, and we shouldn't allow others to hold us back. Even our life of faith can be affected by this mentality, when we over-emphasise the call to have a personal relationship with Christ, and make that personal relationship the only thing that matters.

Sacred scripture reminds us from the very beginning of the Bible that God has created us to be in relationship. In Genesis 2, God says after creating Adam that "it is not good for man to be alone." These words are much more than a reminder of the dignity of the marriage covenant between man and woman. They also remind us that we need others in our life. We are meant to live in a way that moves us outside of our "own little world." We are meant to show care and concern for the needs of others, and to do what we can to respond to those needs, recognizing that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ.

Living in this way helps us to fulfill the commandments that Jesus has given us, especially the command to "love your neighbour as yourself." When we love in this way, it helps us to more fully experience the love of God in our own lives. As we go throughout this week, I encourage you to spend some time in prayer, asking God for the grace to be more attentive to the needs of those around you. May this attentiveness help us to build up the Body of Christ on earth, recognizing that our communion and unity here on earth is a foretaste of the eternal unity we will experience in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Assumption CWL: There is an old saying, "where does the time go?" It seems we only get started when it is time to take a break for the summer. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for your support of our Council over the past CWL year, through our successes and challenges. Your kindness and generosity in answering our request to support those less fortunate than ourselves is so very much appreciated.

Please mark your calendars, the "London Diocesan C.W.L. Day at the Shrine," will be held on Wednesday, July 24, 2024, at St. Patrick's Church and Our Lady of the Rosary Shrine, in Merlin. The day begins at 9:30 a.m. beginning with Mass, with a meet and greet opportunity to get to know other C.W.L members from the London Diocese. Please note you do not have to be a C.W.L member to attend this faith filled day. As well, many men attend this very Spiritual Day at the beautiful Shrine.

A little early, but please mark your calendar and note that our next meeting will be held on September 15, 2024, after the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

Have a blessed, faith filled, safe and joy filled summer.
Marilyn Morrison, President

FAMILY PRAYER REFLECTION: "This week we look to "transitions and changes" as our families move into Summer activities. "Lord, You are with us in every transition and change. As we enter into this new era with excitement and even some anxiety, we recall your deep compassion, presence, and abounding love. We thank you for the gifts, talents and skills with which you have blessed us." "Amen." (Source: Xavier University).

PRAYING WITH THE SUNDAY GOSPEL

Lectio Divina, "divine reading", is a traditional method of scriptural prayer that leads to communion with God. The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops has developed a resource to help you pray with the weekly Sunday Gospel. The resource includes everything you need to pray alone or with family or friends. This is a wonderful way to enter into Ordinary Time of the Church Year and deepen your relationship with Jesus.

"Love God's Will" Film Screening

Love God's Will is the true story of a young priest in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, Fr. Ryan Stawaisz, a Seminary classmate of Fr. Steven's. After graduating from Texas A&M as a petroleum engineer with a promising career ahead of him, Ryan felt God was calling him to the priesthood. A year before his ordination, Ryan was diagnosed with cancer, and his desire became not only to DO God's will, but to LOVE God's will. Despite his battle with cancer, Fr.

Ryan remained steadfast in his desire to serve others and to share the love of Christ with everyone who crossed his path. His public ministry lasted a brief three years; but, Fr. Ryan's witness continues to inspire people of all ages.

Screenings will be held at Imagine Cinemas Lakeshore on June 14th, 15th, and 16th.
