PASTOR'S DESK
22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Dear Friends,
It's hard to believe that we are at the end of summer already with Labor Day upon us - how time flies.
Hopefully we have all had time to set some time aside to relax and reflect. In our Gospel this weekend we are reminded that the Lord's ways are not our ways. Sometimes we perceive with the mind of this world.
We are reminded to "put on the mind of Christ" as St Paul so eloquently said. To be able to see things, situations, the world, with the mind of Christ is a gift of the Holy Spirit. "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds."
When we allow Christ to shape our perceptions we can truly see, "what is good and acceptable and perfect".
On one hand we can certainly understand Peter's reaction to the Lord's prophecies about his suffering and death - he wants the Lord to be spared this humiliation and pain - and also himself and his fellow disciples. But on the other hand our ways are not always God's way. It was necessary that the Christ should suffer and die to save us from our sins, from eternal death. To be a follower of Christ we must daily, "take up our cross and follow him".
Let us continue to strive with the help of the Spirit to conform our minds to Christ!
Have a wonderful Labor day holiday!

Father Christopher

ESCRITORIO DEL SACERDOTE
22^{do} Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Año A

Queridos amigos

Es difícil creer que ya estamos al final del verano con el Día del Trabajo sobre nosotros - cómo vuela el tiempo.

Espero que todos hayamos tenido tiempo para relajarnos y reflexionar. En nuestro Evangelio de este fin de semana se nos recuerda que los caminos del Señor no son nuestros caminos. A veces percibimos con la mente de este mundo.

Se nos recuerda que debemos "adoptar la mentalidad de Cristo", como dijo San Pablo con tanta elocuencia. Ser capaces de ver las cosas, las situaciones, el mundo, con la mente de Cristo es un don del Espíritu Santo. "No os conforméis a este mundo, sino transformaos mediante la renovación de vuestra mente".

Cuando permitimos que Cristo modele nuestras percepciones podemos ver verdaderamente "lo que es bueno, aceptable y perfecto".

Por un lado, podemos entender la reacción de Pedro ante las profecías del Señor sobre su sufrimiento y muerte: quiere que el Señor no sufra esta humillación y dolor, y también él mismo y sus discípulos. Pero, por otra parte, nuestros caminos no son siempre los caminos de Dios. Era necesario que Cristo sufriera y muriera para salvarnos de nuestros pecados, de la muerte eterna. Para ser seguidores de Cristo debemos "tomar nuestra cruz y seguirle" cada día.

Continuemos esforzándonos con la ayuda del Espíritu para conformar nuestras mentes a Cristo.

¡Que tengan unas maravillosas vacaciones del Día del Trabajo!

Padre Christopher
