From the Pastor's Desk

We hear the story this weekend of Jesus sending out the disciples two-by-two to spread the good news. However, there is a condition: don't bring any supplies! It would be quite a daunting and worrying instruction for any of us to head out on a trip without luggage or supplies, yet this is what Jesus asks of them. Why? He wants to teach them radical reliance on God's providence. In doing so it helps the disciples realize that it is not them doing the work, but it is Christ working through them. In our prayer it is always good to consider the events of our day and realize that God is in our midst. He's working in us and through us every moment of every day, but we don't always recognize it. This summer, take some time to reflect on God's providence in your life, offer thanks, and ask for the grace to 'let go, and let God'.

Quote of the Week

"It is not earthly riches that make us happy, but it is God who makes us happy, who is the true riches of our mind."
— St. Augustine

International Day of Friendship July 30

The International Day of Friendship was established by the UN General Assembly in 2011. Friendships enrich our lives in countless ways, providing companionship, emotional support, laughter, and shared experiences. They offer a sense of belonging, acceptance, and understanding, making them invaluable to our well-being. This year's theme: spreading peace and unity: emphasizing the role of friendship in bridging cultural divides and promoting harmony between different groups.
