On this the Fifth Sunday of Easter, we reflect on how Jesus is working through each of us, in our thoughts, actions and words. We are called to live our lives as extensions of Jesus' love in this world.

Pray with our children for the strength to demonstrate Jesus' great love for everyone in this world, always.

Reflection: We observe in a garden that tree branches, when cut off, gradually wither away.

In the gospel account of John, the relationship between Christ and Christians is compared to the connection between the vine and the branches. Our life as Christians is not constructed by us with our own resources. A Christian life of communion is grace flowing from the Trinitarian communion through Christ.

When you sin, you cut yourself from God. But when your sins are forgiven, you are reconciled, and you re-connect to the divine source. Our fruitful life of holiness gives glory to God. The discipline of correction is like the pruning of the vine-dresser. You will grow and bear more fruit, when you allow the gospel-sap to be your nutrients. You will be a fortified disciple who can preach confidently. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024'
