Reflection: Peter steps out of his boat and begins to walk towards Jesus because Jesus says "Come." It would be safer for him to stay in the boat even if the sea is rough and the wind is strong. The evangelist is reminding us that following Jesus will sometimes mean stepping out of our boat, the place where we feel relatively secure. In fact, there are some heights that we cannot attain, some truths that we can never discover, some successes that we can not record, some gifts that we can never acquire, some breakthroughs that we can never experience, some testimonies that we can never give – unless we step out of the boat and walk on the sea towards the One who says "Do it." Let us ask God to give us the faith we need to overcome our fears and doubts and step out to do great and wonderful things, relying on His word, power and grace. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2023.'

ALPHA

On Wednesday September 13th Christ the King parish will be beginning the Alpha program. Alpha is about deepening our relationship with Jesus and helping others discover His love and mercy. For more information or to register you can contact the parish office by sending an email to christtheking@ssmd.ca, or calling 705-674-6447. Remember to pray for the success of Alpha and for the people you know who need Jesus in their lives. Invite them and come with them.

Because Peter had great faith, he was able to walk on the water to Jesus. When Peter became afraid, Jesus reached out to rescue Peter. With Jesus, we can do many marvellous things. At those times when our faith is weak, Jesus reaches out to us, offering his help.
