Reflection: When you have no justification for your request, rely on Divine Mercy!

Such is the case of the Canaanite woman who, as a woman and a pagan from a race of people who are enemies of the Jews, has so many disqualifications and disadvantages. She comes to ask for help for a daughter, not even a male child. She has nothing to her advantage but Jesus, the Divine Mercy, eventually shows her mercy. The first lesson is: even if you are not worthy of favour, you can rely on mercy, you can plead for mercy and you can receive by mercy what you can not receive by merit. Second, it pays to be humble. The Canaanite woman does not allow pride to be an obstacle to her blessing. She is greeted with silence and indifference, then scorn and derision by the disciples then a negative statement by Jesus, and then a belittling simile, but her need is more important than her pride; her determination is not weakened. 'Faith by nature is persistent. Persistence by nature is single-minded. Singlemindedness by nature achieves the end it seeks.' 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2023.'

ALPHA

On Wednesday September 13th Christ the King parish will be beginning the Alpha program. Alpha is about deepening our relationship with Jesus and helping others discover His love and mercy. For more information or to register you can contact the parish office by sending an email to christtheking@ssmd.ca, or calling 705-674-6447. Remember to pray for the success of Alpha and for the people you know who need Jesus in their lives. Invite them and come with them.

Jesus saw that the Canaanite woman's faith was strong. We can continue to develop our faith by praying together, expressing gratitude to God for all that we have and sharing our faith with others.
