Reflection: In today's Gospel reading Jesus asks His disciples two questions. The first is, "Who do people say I am?" The answers given by the disciples are all variations of one answer, "Jesus is a great prophet." Jesus' second question to his disciples is "Who do you say I am?" Peter speaks for the other disciples, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Here indeed is a real insight into Jesus' identity; He acknowledges Peter's insight, "Blessed are you, Simon." But He immediately declares that this insight is a God-given insight; it is not simply the result of Peter's own natural abilities, "It was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven." What is true of Peter, in this regard, is true of all of us. If any of us is to come to know Jesus more fully, it is only with God's help that we can do this; we need the light of God's spirit if we are to come to know God's Son. It is above all the Spirit who leads us to the truth, who leads us to the One who said "I am the way, the truth, and the life." 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2023.'

ALPHA

On Wednesday September 13th Christ the King parish will be beginning the Alpha program. Alpha is about deepening our relationship with Jesus and helping others discover His love and mercy. For more information or to register you can contact the parish office by sending an email to christtheking@ssmd.ca, or calling 705-674-6447. Remember to pray for the success of Alpha and for the people you know who need Jesus in their lives. Invite them and come with them.

Jesus was able to heal the sick and feed many people with very little food. Many people knew that Jesus was a special man, but only one person knew who Jesus was.

Pray with our children for the gift of faith that allows us to recognize Jesus in all of the wonderful things in our lives.

Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and desire to receive You. Since I cannot, at this moment, receive You in the Sacrament, come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You, for You are already there, and unite myself totally to You. Amen.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.
