PARISH NEWS

3rd Sunday of Advent An Advent Examination ... “Advent is the perfect time to clear and prepare the Way. Advent is a winter training camp for those who desire peace. By reflection and prayer, by reading and meditation, we can make our hearts a place where a blessing of peace would desire to abide and where the birth of the Prince of Peace might take place. Daily we can make an Advent examination. Are there any feelings of discrimination toward race, sex, or religion? Is there a lingering resentment, an unforgiven injury living in our hearts? Do we look down upon others of lesser social standing or educational achievement? Are we generous with the gifts that have been given to us, seeing ourselves as their stewards and not their owners? Are we reverent of others, their ideas and needs, and of creation? These and other questions become Advent lights by which we may search the deep, dark corners of our hearts. Edward Hays, A Pilgrim’s Almanac, p. 196

Kids Corner...

On the Third Sunday in Advent, we recall the ways that John the Baptist told people to prepare for the coming of Christ. As we get ready for Christmas pray for the grace to find ways to share God’s great love.

Joy

Visitors are often astonished at the joy they sense at L'Arche. It surprises me too because I know how much suffering some people in our communities are carrying. I wonder then if all joy doesn't somehow spring from suffering and sacrifice. Can those who are rich and live in comfort and security with everything they need, and refuse to be close to those who are suffering, be truly joyful?

Jean Vanier, Community and Growth, p. 319
