History Moments

The Church of Christ the King is Sudbury's oldest English-speaking Catholic church. The first Masses were celebrated in 1917. Make plans to be part of history. Join us in 2017 as we celebrate our Centennial.

C.W.L News

The Catholic Women's League wishes all of their members and all parishioners a very Merry Christmas and Happy, Healthy New Year!

Jesse Tree Thanks

Thank you "Parishioners" of Christ the King for your generosity to our shut-ins. The donations were fabulous and plenty! They are very appreciative and grateful to be remembered.

Many Thanks - Jesse Giving Tree

A parishioner who was in receipt of some care packages from our Jesse Giving Tree wishes to thanks all of the parishioners and their generosity at this time of year that helped bring packages to members of our community. It was with warmth and love that these gifts were given and received. Thank you to all who made this possible. Merry Christmas.
