A Saint's Corner.

Saint Nicholas.

Advent is here, Christmas is around the corner and the world of commerce is already cashing in on this holy and beautiful time. The parades in our towns and cities try to take away the reality of Christmas, the time for Light, Love and Giving. The Feast of Saint Nicholas on Dec. 6 is almost rendered obscure because of the false image masquerading for the real saint. He is known for his kindness and spirit of giving and in my own experience, as a child, gifts were left in my shoes over night, "Little Christmas" as some call it. Wouldn't it be nice and timely to encourage this lovely tradition for our children and grand children?

We offer a pre-authorized debit program. Please contact the parish office if this interests you, or if you have any questions.

Thank you to all who donate to our parish family of Christ the King! Thank you!
