History Moments

On September 25, 1928, the new church bell was blessed by Bishop Scollard during a large ceremony. The bell was inscribed on one side with the names of the Bishop, Pastor and curate, as well as the date of the donation, and on the other was an inscription that read, "This bell was presented to St. Joseph's Parish, Sudbury, Ontario, by David B. Mulligan, Esq., Montreal, Canada." During the ceremony, the bell was rung for the first time by Dr. W.H. Mulligan, brother of David B. Mulligan.

FARWELL FOR NOW!

It is with mixed emotion I write to you today. As most of you know, I have decided to move on to a new venture and will be leaving you on Feb 15, 2017. I have decided to follow my dreams of opening a Decorating Store within a Café called The Cedar Nest Décor Café on Cedar Street downtown. My heart is in the downtown and I would love to see you come for a fresh cup of coffee ☺ It has been a sincere pleasure working for the Church and such a blessing in my life. A special thank you to Fr. B for your witty and dry humour which I love! and for all of your patience with me. Thank you all for your love, your laughter, your forgiveness and your friendship. Please welcome your new Secretary Marissa with the same caring and friendliness that I received.

C.W.L. Members: The CWL General Meeting will be held on February 14, 2017 at 12:45pm. The meeting has been moved to the SMALL HALL for this meeting only. Hope to see you there!
