In this parable we hear about "a certain man" who gave a great feast. As we get closer to Easter, we want to know more about him. Who is this man? What kind of feast is he offering? LEARNING TO DIE To grow is to learn to die. Is this not the ultimate meaning of our lives? As we grow we leave behind us many things. If we spend time weeping over the past we become imprisoned in that past. We must certainly grieve what we have lost, but we must live freely the new realities of the present and we must wait in hope for new life. And so each one of us will makes the final passage of death, waiting for that new gift which we shall welcome; the embrace of the eternal.
