PRESS RELEASE – QUEBEC CITY

The recent cowardly act of shooting on 29 Jan 2017 at Islamic Cultural Centre in Quebec City, by terrorists and the resulting deaths of innocent law abiding citizens has shocked all peace loving Canadians. On behalf of Muslims of Sudbury, the Board of Islamic Association of Sudbury expresses grief, dismay and deep-felt sorrow for the loss of precious lives of Quebec community members and for the blemish on Multicultural mosaic of Canada. It is time for all Canadians to unite to condemn such loathsome and inhuman acts of terror, as we have always condemned such acts of extremism from any quarter of the population irrespective of Creed, color, culture, race or religion. The sanctity of all "Houses of God" in Canada must be protected by every citizen committed to peaceful living from any form of violation, let alone the heinous crime of killing individuals during the act of prayer.

The Board of Islamic Association of Sudbury extends it's condolences to the families of the victims and prayers for peace, healing and recovery to those who survived the tragic event.
