History Moments

Construction was delayed numerous times due to the First World War, but on June 17, 1928 the cornerstone of St. Joseph's Church was laid. During the building of this church, the right wall blew out during a high windstorm that hit Sudbury.

In time for Christmas celebrations, on December 23rd, the first Mass was held in the newly completed church. The architect for the church was P.J. O'Gorman.
