The Re-opening of the Parish ... A letter from our Bishop:

MEMO TO PRIESTS AND FAITHFUL OF THE DIOCESE OF SAULT STE. MARIE

June 9, 2020

Re: REOPENING OF OUR CHURCHES FOR SUNDAY MASS – JUNE 20-21

Dear pastors and friends in Christ,

Ever since the pandemic of Covid-19 was declared and every aspect of our world turned upside down, the question on everyone's mind has been "When will we get back to our normal lives?" For Catholics, the obvious question is "When will we be able to return to church?" The wait has been long and difficult. I sincerely thank you for your patience and perseverance. Your collaboration in self-isolating and in respecting the health authority guidelines has allowed us to regain a safer environment and return to some normalcy of life.

Yesterday, Monday June 8, Premier Ford announced that, in most regions of Ontario (including our Diocese), places of worship can open for religious services as of this coming Friday. Although we have been looking forward to this news, it did come as a surprise. Yesterday morning, before the newsbreak, important information was distributed to all the priests. This 52-page document, prepared by a provincial ad hoc committee of experts organized by the Assembly of Catholic Bishops of Ontario, speaks to everything that needs to be done before a church can be reopened for Mass. These directives are presented as best practices for the safety of our parishioners. Needless to say, priests and parishes have much to do before they are ready to reopen their churches.

An emergency zoom meeting for priests took place today, June 9, to inform them and to confirm a plan of action so that we can all work together and agree to a common date of reopening.

I therefore wish to announce that the Catholic parishes in the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie will open their doors on June 20-21, 2020, if all preparatory measures have been completed in each respective parish.

The long months during which we have been deprived of Eucharistic celebrations within our parishes have undoubtedly brought us to more deeply appreciate the value of this sacrament. Hopefully, this deprivation has strengthened our faith in the Eucharist and heightened our desire to live together as a strong faith community. I pray for each parish and its priests, as you reunite to proclaim together: "How great is the mystery of faith!"

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Marcel Damphousse
Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie

Today is the Feast of Corpus Christi or the Body and Blood of Christ. At the Last Supper, Jesus shared bread and wine with his friends. We know when we take part in the Sacrament of Eucharist at church, we receive Jesus' body and blood so that we can live forever with Him. Pray with our Catholic family for the faith to know that one day we will, again, be able to receive this great gift. Please pray with your child:

*Lord Jesus, you are the living bread which comes to each one of us
in a special way.
Help me to share the joy of your love with others I meet. Amen.*

A Message from the Director of Vocations, Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie, Fr. Daniele Muscolino ... In an effort to reach people discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life online, and to highlight the lives of those who have answered God's call, the Vocations Office of the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie is pleased to debut a new online episodic series named, "Called to Serve". Each episode will profile someone who has given their life in service to the church – priests, sisters, religious, and lay men and women. We will highlight what it's like to be called by God, and discover the grace God grants to those who He calls. Our first episode of "Called to Serve" debuted June 4th, with our first guest

GOD'S ON THE LINE.
DON'T HANG UP!

Vocations Are Everybody's Business

– our Bishop Marcel Damphousse. Bishop Marcel shares when he knew that God was calling him to serve the Church as a priest, the joys and struggles he faced, and what he is looking forward to in his new appointment as Archbishop. These videos are available on the Diocesan Vocations website at www.beapriest.ca/calledtoserve and on the Vocations Office Youtube Channel (www.youtu.be/WV1z2Mx6icU), with a new episode being released every two weeks.
