Reflection: The Fourth Sunday in Lent is known as Laetare Sunday as the Church invites us to rejoice with her (Laetare in Latin means to "rejoice") reminding us that the Lenten season is not a time for grief. The Readings present to us the most important truth in the Bible, expressed through the most celebrated verse in the bible: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life"(Jn 3:16). God's definition in the Old Testament is "Tender Love" and "Mercy"(Ex 34:6-7). Even despite the sin and rebellion of Isreal, graphically explained in the book of Chronicles, God does not withdraw His love at all. We should not read calamities in our life as a sign that God has abandoned us. Instead, the calamities could serve as a temporary time of cleansing before God could reinstate us. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024.'
