Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 13, 2024

Father Raymond will be away on vacation from September 9th to October 18th. Msgr. Jim Hutton will preside over masses in Father Raymond's absence. Please pray for Father Raymond that he has a safe and wonderful trip!

Hour of Grace and First Friday Devotion
Friday, November 1st, 2024
 Time: 4:30pm at Christ the King Church

When the young man asked Jesus about the way to Heaven, Jesus explained that although it is difficult, it is possible if we follow God and Jesus. Pray with our children for the grace to follow God and Jesus, in everything we do.

October is the month of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We invite you and your family to pray the Rosary with us a half hour before every weekday and weekend mass. Praying the Holy Rosary invites us to better know and love Christ by entering into meditations on his birth, daily life, Passion, death and resurrection. Come pray with us!

Reflection: In the first reading of today, the author tells us how he esteems wisdom above health, beauty and wealth. This exposition directs our minds to focus on true wisdom. We shall use the Gospel as our lens; a man comes up to Jesus and asks what he must do to inherit eternal life. Firstly, true wisdom is seeking eternal life, knowing that where we shall spend eternity is more important than where we are now. The man also passes the test of keeping the commandments. Wisdom is not about living a life of self-indulgence, but a life of obedience to God's law. Sadly, where the man lacks wisdom is when he has to choose between following Jesus and his wealth. Sadly, he chooses his wealth; he allows his wealth to possess him. True wisdom is always choosing Jesus above every relationship or possession. It is being able to let go of anything for the sake of Jesus. No matter what we lose because we choose Christ, in the long run, He is the real, true and everlasting fortune. To know this is wisdom. Exciting New Regional Youth Group Forming!!

Holy Redeemer, St. Paul the Apostle, St. Andrew the Apostle, and Christ the King are beginning a regional youth group that will meet at St. Charles College for children in grade 7 or higher. We will be able to use the gym for sports, the chapel for faith sharing, and have some food and fellowship too! Adult volunteers to facilitate the youth ministry are also needed. Please sign up to be a part of the regional youth group following your pastor's instructions. We hope to begin meeting in November. The day and time are not yet determined. They will depend on the availability of those who have signed up. Deadline for signing up is mid October.
