50th Anniversary of his Ordination

Sunday, September 24th

Prayer is talking to God.

Prayer is a powerful tool.

Remember that if you ask for something, God will answer, in His own way.

This week pray with our children in gratitude for the gift of prayer.

Reflection: You are your brother's keeper. Why are we responsible for pointing out a friend's wrong, especially if it can degenerate into something different? Why must we even bother to pursue the situation if he/she refuses the first the first correction? Well, it is because we are so connected to one another that, to think that fall of anyone is inconsequential is to forget how the world fell in the first place: by the act of one woman who did not have the privilege of being corrected. Hence, Jesus is concerned with how situations are resolved within the community. Let us be mindful that treating a tax collector well is relating with him in the manner that Jesus would. No matter what processes are used to draw someone's attention to wrong, the end must be the desire to win a brother back.
